

For immediate release: March 29, 2019

Trial Lawyers Association of BC Applauds BC Government for Small Step on Legal Aid

Vancouver, BC –The Trial Lawyers Association of British Columbia (TLABC) applauds the BC Government for their short-term increase in legal aid funding as a small step in the right direction. TLABC calls upon Attorney General David Eby to commit to long-term increased funding and reforms to BC’s legal aid system that serves the most vulnerable in BC. “We continue to stand with the Association of Legal Aid Lawyers in their effort to fight for access to justice in BC,” said TLABC President Ron Nairne. “It is essential that the BC Government make the necessary reforms to ensure our province’s court system protects the rights of all.

-30-

About TLABC

The mission of the Trial Lawyers’ Association of BC is to support and promote the rights of individuals in British Columbia.

For media or other enquiries:

Todd Hauptman, Public Affairs Director

604-696-6519

todd@tlabc.org