Trial Lawyers Association of BC Announced as a Winner in 2019 NATLE Excellence Awards

[San Diego, California] – July 28, 2019 – Trial Lawyers Association of BC has been named a winner as the Continuing Legal Education Program of the Year in the National Association of Trial Lawyer Executives (NATLE) Excellence Awards for the Trial by Fire No More education and networking series for new lawyers in the Best Programs category. These awards honour best-in-class products and services for trial lawyer justice associations.

NATLE named the 2019 award winners at the 47th NATLE Annual Conference in San Diego, California, at the Awards Luncheon on Sunday, July 28. The NATLE Annual Meeting is the largest gathering of justice association executives in the USA and Canada.

The CLE of the Year award goes to a NATLE member association whose educational program significantly impacts attorneys in meaningful ways. The outstanding educational program has clear objectives and provides supportive educational materials, content, and methods that are audience-appropriate. The program is innovative and adaptable for other NATLE members to replicate and adapt in their CLE programs.
