Who can view TLABC Classifieds & Job Board?

The webpage is available to the public through the TLABC website.

How long will my advertisement run?

Upon approval, advertisements will be posted within three business days for three weeks. To extend the run period, ads must be resubmitted. To remove the advertisement early, email classified@tlabc.org.

Are there restrictions to what I can advertise in the Classifieds?

Permitted:

Ads of a practice-related nature such as law-office items for sale, office space to rent/share. Legal community volunteer opportunities and event notices will be considered.

Prohibited:

Ads for personal sale items, personal social invitations, fundraising appeals or commercial advertising in general, nor to promote non-TLABC education programs or courses. Members who operate as sole-practitioners are permitted to seek contract-based work, but advertising of paid legal services is otherwise prohibited.

Additional Policies:

Exceptions to the policies outlined above may be possible. Exceptions are generally with respect to events or activities of wide interest to the membership, and those that serve the greater good of TLABC and the legal community. Publication of advertising does not imply endorsement by TLABC. TLABC reserves the right to edit or decline publication of any advertisement. To discuss opportunities for paid advertising with TLABC (e.g. the Verdict magazine, website, newsletter), contact Merri Hagan at merri@tlabc.org.
