Five CAOC New Lawyers get top “Fast Track” nod Honored by Recorder legal newspaper for top accomplishments

SACRAMENTO (April 9, 2012) – Five members of Consumer Attorneys of California have been named to the list of 50 “Fast Track” lawyers by the San Francisco-based legal publication The Recorder.

The list is made up of California attorneys in their first 10 years out of law school “whose early accomplishments indicate they will be tomorrow's top lawyers and leaders,” according to The Recorder.

“We judged the nominees as leaders, lawyers and community members,” Recorder editor-in-chief Greg Mitchell said. “Making the list typically required either substantial accomplishment in all three areas or a jaw-dropping example of accomplishment in one.”

The CAOC members are:

- Justin Berger of the Burlingame firm Cotchett, Pitre & McCarthy;
- Matthew Edling of Cotchett, Pitre & McCarthy;
- Daniel Hutchinson of the San Francisco firm Lief Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein;
- James Nevin, Jr., of the Novato firm Brayton Purcell; and
- Kristen Law Sagafi of Lief Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein.

The “Fast Track” lawyers will be honored at a luncheon June 5.

Consumer Attorneys of California is a professional organization of plaintiffs' attorneys representing consumers seeking accountability against wrongdoers in cases involving personal injury, product liability, environmental degradation and other causes.
