CAOC statement condemning violence against Asian Americans

The attacks on Asian Americans in California and elsewhere in this country, including the recent murders in Atlanta, are sickening. There is no justification for assaulting our neighbors of Asian descent, or anyone else, based on their race or ethnicity. Consumer Attorneys of California and our members stand up, in the courtroom and at the Legislature, for the civil rights of all Americans. We stand with Asian Americans and deplore these senseless acts of physical and verbal violence against them. There is no place for racism and xenophobia in any form directed against any group in our society. The hatred directed at our Asian American neighbors must stop.
