CAOC congratulates Biden, Harris for election victory

After days of waiting, their triumph will help restore dignity and order to our Democracy

SACRAMENTO (November 7, 2020) – Leaders of Consumer Attorneys of California congratulated President-elect Joe Biden and Vice President-elect Kamala Harris for their election victory today. The following statement is from CAOC President Micha Star Liberty:

“We congratulate President-elect Joe Biden and our own California-born and raised Vice President-elect, Kamala Harris. This election will help restore dignity and order to our democracy, and we remain hopeful that in the months ahead our newly elected White House leaders will more effectively address issues such as COVID-19, racial injustice, social inequities and the protection of consumer rights. We are delighted to see America make history by elevating a woman to the nation’s second highest elected office. This is a good day for Joe and Kamala, for California and the nation, and for democracy and justice.”

Consumer Attorneys of California is a professional organization of plaintiffs’ attorneys representing consumers seeking accountability against wrongdoers in cases involving personal injury, product liability, environmental degradation and other causes.
