

3rd Annual
CALIFORNIA REGIONAL TLA CONFERENCE MCLE PROGRAM
MAY 18th—MAY 20th, 2007

at the luxurious

ESTANCIA
LA JOLLA
HOTEL & SPA

CALIFORNIA REGIONAL TLA CONFERENCE MCLE PROGRAM

MAY 18th—MAY 20th, 2007

WHERE YOU WILL BE STAYING

Estancia La Jolla, is a luxury hotel, world-class spa and certified conference destination officially opened to guests in the summer of 2004. Estancia La Jolla which has already achieved the status of one of the “Hottest New Hotels of the World” by Condé Nast Traveler as well as the coveted “Four-Diamond” rating awarded by AAA, among others.

Conveniently located adjacent to the University of California at San Diego, 14 miles from downtown, and minutes from celebrated beaches, golf courses and major attractions, Estancia La Jolla is the newest crown jewel of the historic city of La Jolla.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Thoughtfully designed and impeccably furnished, each room invites a heightened sense of well being. Bedding is adorned with plush comforter, linens and pillows. Elegant bathrooms offer luxurious personal amenities. And convenient work desk with wireless, high-speed technology, high-back reading chair and accompanying leather ottoman all add to your comfort. Plus, no room is deemed complete without a soft robe and equestrian blanket.

RESERVATIONS

The Conference is May 18th to the 20th at Estancia La Jolla Resort & Spa, reservations can be made by calling 1-877-437-8262 or you can register on-line at www.estancialajolla.com. Space is limited so we suggest getting your reservation in now. Reference “Regional Trial Lawyer Association” when making your reservation to get our special rates.

Their web site is also a good place to learn more about this beautiful resort.

ROOM RATES

Single room (double occupancy) $239.00 (plus tax) per night
Suite— Call SFTLA for availability.

MCLE CREDIT INFORMATION

This activity has been approved for Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit by the State Bar of California in the amount of 9 hours, including 1 elimination of bias credit.

San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association certifies that this activity conforms to the standards for approved education activities prescribed by the rules and regulations of the State Bar of California governing Minimum Continuing Legal Education.

San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association will maintain your MCLE records on this seminar

SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE

DAY 1

Friday May 18, 2007

Everyone 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm The Nuts and Bolts of Depositions for New Lawyers

Activity 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm Welcome Reception

DAY 2

Saturday, May 19, 2007

Everyone 9:00 am to 11:00 am Tips from the Masters

Track One 11:00 am to 1:00 pm Reviewing Medical Records

Track Two 11:00 am to 1:00 pm Case Road Show

Everyone 1:00-2:00p.m Grow Your Practice through Effective Online Marketing

Lunch Sponsored by 866-44FINDLAW

Activity 6:00 pm to 11:00 pm Cocktail Reception & Dinner

DAY 3

Sunday, May 20, 2007

Everyone 9:00 am to 11:00 am Plaintiffs Gone Wild

DAY 1

Friday May 18, 2007

Everyone 2:00 pm to 4:00 pmThe Nuts and Bolts of Depositions for New Lawyers*2 MCLE Credits

Jennie Lee Anderson, Chair—is a partner at the law firm of Andrus Liberty & Anderson LLP, where she focuses on product liability, employment, personal injury, and consumer protection cases. Prior to co-founding Andrus Liberty & Anderson LLP, Ms. Anderson practiced in the San Francisco offices of Lerach Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins LLP and Lieff Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein LLP, representing plaintiffs in a variety of class action and complex litigation cases. Ms. Anderson also previously worked at the Habeas Corpus Resource Center in San Francisco, where she specialized in constitutional law, filing habeas corpus petitions on behalf of indigent inmates on California's death row.

Technical Aspects Of Depositions

Richard A. Huver—is a partner at Levine, Steinberg, Miller & Huver, which is recognized as one of the leading firms in the country in handling insurance bad faith matters. Over the course of his 20-plus year legal career, Mr. Huver has handled numerous personal injury, wrongful death, insurance bad faith and consumer class action cases, including a California class action against a major insurer resulting in a premium refund, and a disability claim settled on behalf of the San Diego Padres. He was the 2006 President of the Consumer Attorneys of San Diego, and he has been the monthly Insurance Law column editor for the Trial Bar News since 1998. Mr. Huver has received numerous awards, including an Outstanding Trial Lawyer Award in 2000 and the 2001 President's Award, both from the Consumer Attorneys of San Diego, and the 2006 Local TLA President of the Year Award from the Consumer Attorneys of California.

Preparing For, Taking And Defending The Depos Of The Respective Witness

Steven Maurice Boudreau—is a partner at the San Diego firm Boudreau, Albert & Wohlfeil, specializing in personal injury claims involving premises liability, construction site injuries, motor vehicles and defective products. He earned his J.D. degree in 1976 from California Western School of Law. His memberships include Consumer Attorneys of California (Trial Lawyer Association President of the Year, 1995), Consumer Attorneys of San Diego where he served as President in 1995 and received the David Casey Consumer Advocate Award in 1997 and the Outstanding Advocate Award in 2002.

Dealing With Difficult Opposing Counsel And Speaking Objections

Ed Chapin—Mr. Chapin is an experienced trial attorney whose courtroom abilities have been recognized for over 15 years by organizations such as the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) and The Best Lawyers in America (1989-present). Mr. Chapin's practice emphasizes complex, multiparty civil litigation in the areas of toxic torts and product liability, insurance coverage and bad faith, unfair business practices, and professional negligence of attorneys and health care providers. He was lead counsel for the chemical manufacturer featured in the award winning movie, The Erin Brockovich Story. For more than a decade, Mr. Chapin has served as a member of the National Board of Directors of ABOTA, has chaired its Professionalism Committee, and co-chaired its Constitution and Bylaws Committee.

Expert Depositions (Taking And Defending)

Christine D. Spagnoli—of the law firm Greene, Broillet & Wheeler, LLP. Ms. Spagnoli plays a leading role in representing people injured in tire tread separation cases. She is a member of the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee for Ford/Firestone cases in California. Additionally, she is Plaintiff's Liaison Counsel for Cooper Tire cases. Her achievements cover the full range of personal injury and product liability cases. Ms. Spagnoli was named Most Outstanding Young Trial Lawyer of 2001 by the Association of Trial Lawyers of America, New Lawyers Division. She also received Loyola Law School's 2001 Trial Lawyer of the Year Award. As a frequent lecturer and author, she has shared her expertise on various trial techniques including demonstrative evidence, direct and cross examination methods, written discovery and demonstrating head trauma injury in children. Ms. Spagnoli received her B.A. in 1978 from UCLA, and her J.D. in 1986 from Loyola Law School.

The Who, What, Where, When, And Why Of Motions To Compel And Motions In Limine

Hon. Victoria Chaney—is a Judge in the Los Angeles Superior Court, and has worked as a judge in LA's Municipal Court, as LA's Assistant City Attorney, and, before her career in law, as a Registered Nurse at Cedars-Sinai and LAC-USC hospitals. On May 13, 1994, Judge Chaney was elevated to the Los Angeles Superior Court and was assigned to Department L, a trial court, in West Branch in Santa Monica where she heard both civil and criminal trials. From January 1995 to December, 1995, she was assigned to Department H in South-Central Branch in Compton, presiding in a criminal direct calendar court. January, 1998, she transferred from Compton to the Department 19 in the Stanley Mosk Civil Courthouse, handling a civil direct calendar. On April 4, 2000, her assignment changed to the Complex Litigation Program in Department 324 in Central Civil West, handling cases designated as complex. In June 2004, she became Assistant Managing Judge of the Complex Litigation Program.

This program is being offered by Alameda/Contra Costa Trial Lawyers Assoc., Capitol City TLA, Central Coast TLA, Consumer Attorneys of California, Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles, Consumer Attorneys of San Diego, Marin Trial Lawyers Assoc., Santa Clara Trial Lawyers Assoc., San Francisco Trial Lawyers Assoc., Orange County Trial Lawyers Assoc., San Mateo County TLA, and Western TLA

Activity 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm

Welcome Reception—Hors d'oeuvres and drinks. Come mingle with colleagues and friends.

DAY 2

Saturday May 19, 2007

Everyone 9:00 am to 11:00 am

Tips from the Masters

2 MCLE Credits

Robert Arns, Chair—is the founder of The Arns Law Firm with offices in San Francisco and Reno. Bob has exclusively specialized in representing families who have had catastrophic events occur in their lives including serious injuries and death caused by defective products, construction site incidents of other scenarios since 1975. Bob was SFTLA Trial Lawyer of the Year 2004, (Finalist 2000 & 2003) and Finalist CAOC Trial Lawyer of the Year 2002 & 2003 & 2004. He is an adjunct professor of law at the University of San Francisco teaching trial practice, CAOC Board of Governors, SFTLA Board of Directors, presenter in ABOTA Masters of Trial, frequent lecturer on consumer issues, and one of “top 100” Super Lawyers in Northern California. Bob’s new office building has a built in mock trial center. Bob has argued numerous cases in front of appellate courts including the California Supreme Court and the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals and has resolved over 250 seven and eight figure cases by verdict and settlement including 4 eight figure verdicts.

Tom V. Girardi—is a partner in Girardi & Keese, where he specializes in commercial litigation, product liability law, toxic torts, and bad faith cases. He is an associate professor for Loyola Law School. Mr. Girardi was the youngest member to ever be admitted to the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, an organization limited to 500 lawyers in the world, and was elected as its president in 2005. His other memberships include Inner Circle of Advocates and American Board of Trial Advocates, where he served as the national president. He has been listed in the “Best Lawyers in America” for 20 years and the “Daily Journal’s” top lawyers in California since the list was first printed. In 2002, he was honored by the Los Angeles Business Journal as one of the “Most Powerful Attorneys” in Los Angeles. He was inducted into the “Trial Lawyer Hall of Fame” by the California State Bar in 2003, joining eleven other lawyers in the State who have been so honored since the award was first presented.

William Veen—in 1969, Mr. Veen became a member of the State Bar of California. After working for a San Francisco plaintiffs’ law firm, Mr. Veen founded the Law Offices of William L. Veen in 1975. Since that time, he has represented thousands of injured workers and consumers in recovering damages arising from industrial accidents, construction accidents, elevator accidents, motorcycle accidents, defective products, professional liability and auto and truck accidents. Mr. Veen was honored as the 2003 Trial Lawyer of the Year by the San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association. He is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates, the Consumer Attorneys of California, the San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association (President, 1994), the Association of Trial Lawyers of America, the California Applicants Attorneys Association, the State Bar of California and the State Bar of Hawaii. Mr. Veen has been a frequent lecturer for the Consumer Attorneys of California and the San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association.

Brian Panish—is a partner in the Law Firm of Panish, Shea & Boyle, LLP. In 2006, he was named one of the 100 Most Influential Attorneys in America by The National Law Journal. He was also named one of the Nation’s Top Ten Litigators by the National Law Journal. He has been named by the Daily Journal as one of the “100 Most Influential Attorneys” in the State of California and was also named Lawyer of the Year by O’Brien’s Verdictum Juris and O’Brien’s Evaluator. He is also listed in “Best Lawyers in America.” Named by Law Dragon as One of the Top 500 Attorneys and Litigators in the United States. Some of his most notable cases include Anderson v. General Motors, Lampe v. Continental General Tire, Griggs v. Caterpillar, Witham v. Avjet, and Wu v. Singapore Airlines. Mr. Panish is a member of Inner Circle of Advocates (limited to 100 of the Best plaintiff lawyers in America), CAALA (Trial Lawyer of the Year 1999), CAOC (Board of Governors), American Bar Association (Civil Justice Foundation), American Board of Trial Advocates, International Society of Barristers, Attorneys Information Exchange Group (Board of Directors), and Trial Lawyers for Public Justice (Finalist Trial Lawyer of the Year 1990, 1994, 1999). He received his B.S. from California State University and his J.D. from Southwestern University School of Law.

Thomas Brandi—was admitted to the United States Supreme Court Bar in 1982 and the United States Court of Claims in 1995. He has served as president of CAOC and SFTLA. He has represented clients in over 31 counties in California and has tried cases in 16 separate jurisdictions obtaining six jury verdicts in excess of one million dollars. He is also the co-winner of CAOC Trial Lawyer of the Year Award for 2004.

Track One 11:00 am to 1:00 pm

Reviewing Medical Records

2 MCLE Credit

Nancy Frasier, Chair—R.N., Los Angeles. Founder of Med Legal Consulting Source, a legal nurse consulting firm. As a Registered Nurse, Nancy’s nursing career spans 20 years with experience in both clinical and administrative arenas. She has assisted in over 10,000 operations, ranging from arthroscopy and laparoscopy to open shoulder surgery and hernia repairs. In 1987 Nancy co-founded a multi-specialty surgery center in Santa Monica, one of the first in California. As a surgery center owner Nancy addressed national audiences on surgery center administration in the managed care environment and became a resource to insurance companies and attorneys in the area of medical litigation. Drawing on this experience, Nancy founded Med Legal Consulting Source in 1999 to fill a need in the legal profession that wasn't being met. Her goal was to offer services that would make medical case preparation far easier. Nancy stays active in the surgical field, having recently returned from El Salvador where she assisted in the operating room performing corrective foot surgery on crippled children.

Using Medical Records & Diagnostic Tests to Evaluate a Traumatic Brain Injury

Thomas Dempsey—is a sole practitioner, specializing in personal injury and complex litigation, with emphasis in professional negligence, products liability and premises liability. He has a B.A. from UCLA, and a J.D. from University of Oregon. He is a member of the following organizations: Consumer Attorneys of Los Angeles [Past President; 1994 Ted Horn Memorial Award]; Consumer Attorneys of California [Outstanding Chapter President Award, 1993]; Trial Lawyers for Public Justice [Board of Directors]; Western Center on Law and Poverty [Board of Directors]; Litigation Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association [Board of Trustees and Executive Committee; Coalition for Justice [Executive Committee]; American Board of Trial Advocates; American Association of Justice.

Using a Historian of Medical Records as a Witness

John "Jack" F. Denove— is a partner in the Los Angeles firm of Cheong, Denove, Rowell & Bennett, specializing in major injury and business tort litigation. Past President of the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles; President of Consumer Attorneys Public Education Fund; Board Member of the Consumer Attorneys of California; Diplomat of the American Board of Trial Advocates; Executive Committee Member of Los Angeles County Bar Association's Litigation Section; and Member of ATLA, Trial Lawyers for Public Justice and the Cowboy Lawyers Association [Board Member]. Named CAALA's Trial Lawyer of the Year in 1993. Received the CAOC/CTLA Presidential Award of Merit in 1994 and 1996, 2000 and CAOC's Outstanding President of the Year Award in 2000.

Track Two 11:00 am to 1:00 pm

Case Road Show

2 MCLE Credits

John Gomez—Amagna cum laude graduate of the University of San Diego, where he also garnered Academic All-American honors as a member of the Toreros football team, John went on to graduate from Yale Law School, the nation's top-ranked law school, in 1993. In 1997, he returned to San Diego to accept a position as an Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District. An exceptionally effective trial attorney, John tried and won twenty felony trials, including several high-profile, complex and lengthy prosecutions. In 2005, he received the Consumer Attorney of San Diego's Outstanding Trial Attorney award for the landmark jury award he obtained for his clients in Hirsch v. Brown, a case involving the mishandling of a mother's body parts by a local crematorium. In 2006, he received the Consumer Attorney of San Diego's Outstanding Trial Attorney award for the jury verdict he obtained for his clients in a wrongful death case arising out of San Diego's notorious "American Beauty" murder. That verdict is the largest wrongful death verdict in California history. He has been named one of San Diego's Top 10 corporate and business attorneys by his peers the last two years, is a 2007 San Diego "Super Lawyer" in the personal injury field.

Joshua D. Gruenberg—has practiced law in California since 1992. In 2004 Josh received the Outstanding Trial Lawyer Award from Consumer Attorneys of San Diego for his work in the case, Haist v. Rohr Industries, Inc. In 2000, he was awarded the Consumer Attorney of California's President's Award for his efforts at defeating anti-consumer initiatives. Josh specializes in the preparation and litigation of employment related cases such as breach of contract cases, sexual harassment or whistle blower cases, and litigation of personal injury cases, including premises liability, defective products cases and auto crashes. Josh is on the Board of Directors of the Consumer Attorneys of San Diego, and is also a member of the San Diego County Bar Association, the Consumer Attorneys of California, American Association of Justice and the National Employment Lawyers Association.

Robert Vaage—has an extensive background as a medical malpractice trial lawyer in California. After law school, he originally worked for a small litigation defense firm in Sacramento before returning to San Diego to join the firm of Rhoades, Hollywood & Neil, where he prepared major cases in a variety of personal injury litigation. In 1986, Robert Vaage was asked to join the law firm of Daniel Broderick. It was there that Mr. Vaage developed his expertise as a trial lawyer specializing in medical malpractice. Since then, his practice has expanded to include personal injury, employment/discrimination law, HMO, nursing home and elder abuse law, product liability, insurance bad faith and cases involving children. Mr. Vaage utilizes the latest in research and trial preparation technology and has tried numerous cases before judges, juries and arbitration panels. Robert Vaage has acted as a party arbitrator in Kaiser and medical malpractice arbitrations since 1989. He has also been retained as an expert for both the plaintiff and defendant in legal malpractice cases involving an underlying medical malpractice lawsuit.

Deborah A. Wolfe—practices in the areas of legal and other professional malpractice, child molestation, personal injury and general civil litigation. She is admitted to the Bars of California and Arizona. Ms. Wolfe was president of the Consumer Attorneys of San Diego in 1996. She received a B.A. from Texas Christian University in 1977 and a J.D. from the University of San Diego Law School in 1980. She was a Board member of Consumer Attorneys of San Diego from 1988 - 1998 and a Board member of Lawyers Club of San Diego from 1983 to 1987. Ms. Wolfe is an appointed Superior Court Arbitrator as well as an appointed Municipal Court Judge Pro Tem and Arbitrator and Mediator, American Arbitration Association. She is a member of Consumer Attorneys of San Diego, Consumer Attorneys of California, Association of Trial Lawyers of America, State Bar of California, State Bar of Arizona, and San Diego County Bar Association. Ms. Wolfe was awarded an Outstanding Trial Lawyer Award by San Diego Trial Lawyers Association in 1987 and Outstanding Trial Lawyer Award by Consumer Attorneys of San Diego in 1996, 2000 and 2002 as well as Trial Lawyer of the Year in 1996 and 2005. She is a graduate of Gerry Spence's Trial Lawyers College, 1999. Ms. Wolfe is named in Who's Who of American Women 1984/1985 and Who's Who in American Law, 1998 as well as Top 100 Lawyers in San Diego in 2006 in San Diego Daily Transcript.

Everyone 1:00-2:00p.m

Grow Your Practice through Effective Online Marketing 1 MCLE Credit

Findlaw—In order to gain new clients for your law firm, distinguishing yourself from your competitors on the Internet can be vital to your success. Learn key insights into an effective Web Site, how to drive Web traffic through search engine marketing, how to evaluate your marketing tactics from a budgetary perspective, and the ethical considerations of legal marketing. Lunch Sponsored by 866-44FINDLAW

DAY 3

Sunday May 20, 2007

Everyone 9:00 am to 11:00 am

Plaintiffs Gone Wild

2 MCLE Credits, Including 1 Elimination of Bias

Broader Lines for Boarderlines: Representing the Psychologically Challenged Client

Linda Scaparotti, Chair—obtained her J.D. at U.C. Davis in 1980. She relies heavily on her training in method acting, playback theater, and background in psychology in her civil litigation practice, especially working with psychologically injured and challenging clients. She is on the Executive Committee of the SFTLA board, and Board of Governors for the Human Rights Campaign, and is past Co-Chair of BALIF.

The Angry New Yorker in San Diego: He's Pissed Off Everyone from the Defendants to the Mediator, So How Do You Get a Jury to Like Him?

John Rice—is a partner in the San Diego Firm of LaFave & Rice, practicing general civil litigation, with an emphasis on personal injury cases as well as real estate and business litigation matters. He is a graduate of the University of Redlands (1986, B.A, Political Science/History) and California Western School of Law (1992, Magna Cum Laude). John has been a Member of California Bar since 1992 and is admitted to all California Courts. He is a Sustaining Member of Consumer Attorneys of San Diego and a member of their Board of Directors since 2001. He is an active member of Consumer Attorneys of California and served as an at large board member in 2000. He is a member of the San Diego County Bar Association as well as the Association of Trial Lawyers of America. Mr. Rice has presented at numerous continuing legal education seminars throughout the State of California. He has chaired the annual CASD Lien Update Seminar since its inception in 2002 as well as CASD's "Tuesday Night at the Lab" program

Confronting a Jury with Their Prejudices, Turing Them to Your Client's Advantage

Nigel Burns—is originally from Ireland where he obtained the first of his two law degrees. Mr. Burns received his law degree in the United States from Loyola Law School in Los Angeles, California and was the graduate speaker for his graduating class. He currently serves on the Board of the Orange County Trial Lawyers Association and his most recent trial resulted in a verdict of $1.4 million dollars in a medical malpractice action against the County of Los Angeles. Mr. Burns is experienced in handling cases involving medical negligence and failure to treat as well as all types of personal injury, including but not limited to, automobile and pedestrian accidents, slip and fall accidents, victims of criminal attacks on commercial premises, product design and defect cases and dog-bite cases. His experience in trial and arbitrations makes him a capable advocate who has also successfully litigated insurance bad faith matters and business and commercial disputes as well as breach of contract claims and criminal defense matters.

Playing the Cards You've Been Dealt: Minimizing the Impact of Problem Clients through Witness Preparation, Theme Development, and Voir Dire

Sonia Chopra—is a trial consultant with National Jury Project/West in Oakland. Dr. Chopra designs, implements and analyzes focus groups and trial simulations for a wide variety of cases, and assists attorneys in case analysis and jury selection. She is highly skilled in examining and appraising potential juror bias through community attitude surveys, media content analysis, and assistance during voir dire. Dr. Chopra also has extensive experience working with both trial attorneys and witnesses on their communication and persuasion skills, and she has interviewed hundreds of jurors following verdicts. Dr. Chopra has conducted experimental research and presented numerous papers on juror comprehension of judicial instructions, juror stress, jury deliberation and methodological issues with simulation research. She regularly speaks at local, state, and national law organization meetings, including the Association of Trial Lawyers of America, American Inns of Court, and various Bar Associations across the country. Dr. Chopra is also a frequently invited news commentator.

Expecting the Unexpected

Christopher Dolan—is the owner of a 7-lawyer firm specializing in plaintiff litigation in the areas of personal injury, medical malpractice and employment discrimination. He graduated from Georgetown University Law Center. Mr. Dolan holds an MA in Admin. He is a member of American Association of Justice and the Capital City Trial Lawyers Association. He currently serves on the Board of CAOC & SFTLA.

SURF. TURF. GOLF THAT'S AS GOOD AS IT GETS

What you may want to check out while at Estancia La Jolla

In and Around La Jolla

Located adjacent to the University of California San Diego on the convenient Torrey Pines Road, Estancia La Jolla Hotel & Spa is just minutes from the newer La Jolla Village area, and up the hill from downtown La Jolla's celebrated Prospect Street and Girard Avenue featuring cafés, top name shops, boutiques, art galleries, the Museum of Contemporary Art and the Athenaeum Music and Arts Library. Drive south to the Balboa Park area of San Diego and discover the world famous San Diego Zoo, Old Globe Theatre and Reuben H. Fleet Space Center, or north to the Torrey Pines Golf Club, Legoland or seasonal racing at the Del Mar Racetrack.

Fitness and Activities

Begin the day with a Sunrise Yoga Class in our outdoor garden or enjoy a night swim in the heated pool. Our complimentary fitness center as well as the surrounding hiking and biking trails provide endless opportunities to achieve your personal fitness goal and experience all of La Jolla's natural beauty.

Fitness Center: Open 6am-9pm daily We offer a complete fitness facility featuring Life Fitness training equipment, along with a variety of mind body fitness classes including sunrise yoga, guided hikes, circuit training and master swim. Call the Spa for a current fitness schedule.

Pool: Open 7am-10pm daily Surrounded by a lush garden environment, our heated pool and Jacuzzi and provide the perfect day or night retreat. Lap swim is available daily from 7-9 in the morning. For your convenience, towels and chaise lounge chairs are available.

Personal Training: Work with a certified personal trainer to develop a program that addresses your needs, and begins the process of achieving the results you desire. Select from cardio training, weight training, or a combination of the two. Call the Spa to schedule your training session.

Recreation: Heated swimming pool and whirlpool, Seasonal children's and family activities. State-of-the-art fitness center. Personal training Mind/body fitness classes, including sunrise yoga, guided hikes, circuit training and master swimming

Estancia La Jolla Spa: Team-building exercises, Men's and women's facilities with private eucalyptus steam rooms and saltwater whirlpools, Outdoor treatment areas, Massage treatments, Botanical Garden Wraps Facials, Manicures and pedicures, Spa shop

Nearby Golf: Torrey Pines Golf Course, Del Mar National Golf Course

Dining

Adobe El Restaurante - Serves traditional Southern California cuisine, combining fresh ingredients and distinctive flavors, in a chic-casual atmosphere for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Bodega Wine Bar - This relaxed lounge features more than 125 West Coast wines, including the hotel's own private label, as well as a refined "small plate" concept beginning at 5 p.m. daily.

Library - A living-room setting for intimate private dining or hospitality.

Mustangs & Burros - An upscale version of the traditional sports bar, this casual gathering place features an outdoor fireplace, rustic decor, an impressive collection of beer on tap, signature margaritas and a delightful menu of comfort foods.

Pool Bar - Offers cocktails and light dining overlooking the swimming pool and surrounding gardens.

In-Room dining - We offer the convenience of 24-hour room service.

REGISTRATION FORM

CALIFORNIA REGIONAL TLA CONFERENCE MCLE PROGRAM

State Bar # _____ Name _____ Firm Name _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____ FAX _____ Email address _____

Fees:	Early Bird till April 27th	After April 27th	On site registration
<input type="checkbox"/> Member of _____ TLA	$255.00	$285.00	add $25
<input type="checkbox"/> Non-Member	$355.00	$385.00	add $25

(If you would like information about joining your local TLA please check here)

Saturday Dinner : Ticket price $ 50 Names of Attendees _____, _____, _____

Make checks payable to: SFTLA Send to: 225 Bush Street, Suite #357 San Francisco, CA 94104

Charge my Visa MasterCard AMEX

Card No. _____ Exp. Date: _____ Signature: _____

Billing address if different than above: _____

SFTLA CERTIFICATES are available through the SFTLA office. Limited Seating available for on-site registration, on a first come, first served basis.

PLEASE NOTE: We reserve the right to substitute speakers and/or topics.

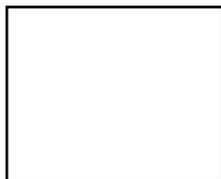

REFUNDS: No refunds will be made for cancellations, however, substitutes may attend in place of a registrant. Non-members substituting for a member must pay difference in price.

Mail: Your registration form and payment to: SFTLA, 225 Bush Street #357, San Francisco, CA 94104

Questions: Call the SFTLA office at 415-956-6401 // 415-956-6680 [FAX] // info@sftla.org

3rd Annual
CALIFORNIA REGIONAL TLA
CONFERENCE MCLE PROGRAM
 MAY 18th—MAY 20th, 2007

SAN FRANCISCO TRIAL LAWYERS ASSOCIATION
 225 Bush St, Ste # 357
 San Francisco, CA 94104