

John F. McKenna

Admitted to the Bar: Pennsylvania – 1988
New Jersey – 1988
PA Federal Court – 1989
New Jersey Federal Court – 1988

Year Joined Firm: 1988

Education: Fairleigh Dickinson University
(B.A. Psychology and Anthropology, 1973)
Temple University School of Law (J.D. 1988)

- Barrister Award Winner
- Temple Environmental Law and Technology Journal

Memberships: Chester County Bar Association
Pennsylvania Bar Association
New Jersey State Bar Association
American Bar Association
American Inns of Court

Personal: John was born on September 30, 1951 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
He and wife, Karen, have two children, Megan, age 19 and Kelly, age 14 and they reside in West Goshen Township.

Community Involvement:

- President, West Goshen Lions Club – July 1997 to June 1998
- President, North Central Neighborhood Association – 1982 – 1984
- President, West Chester Neighborhood Security Council – 1981-1984
- West Chester University 2000 Committee – 1997 - 1998
- Chester County Flower Show – 1998 – 2000
- American Cancer Society – Coping Program

- Founder, West Goshen Lions Club Foundation
- Chester County Art Association – Board Member 2002 to the present.

Bar Association Activities:

- Chairman, Lawyer Referral Committee - 1992 – 1996
- Chester County Bar Association Board of Directors – Board Member – 1997- 1999
- Secretary to the Bar Association, Executive Committee Member -2000
- Treasurer of the Chester County Bar Association, Executive Committee Member - 2001
- Vice President, Chester County Bar Association, Executive Committee Member – 2002
- President Elect, Chester County Bar Association, Executive Committee Member – 2003
- President, Chester County Bar Association, Executive Committee Member – 2004
- President, Chester County Bar Foundation – 2000
- Chairman, Judicial Evaluation Task Force – 2000
- Golf Committee for Chester County Bar Foundation 2000 to the ~~present~~ 2010
- Board of Directors, John E. Stively American Inns of Court – Treasurer – 1999 to ~~present~~ 2007

JOHN F. McKENNA, ESQUIRE
Director

John F. McKenna concentrates his practice in the areas of estate and trust litigation and administration, stock broker litigation cases, as well as fraud and consumer protection matters. John is a qualified Orphan's Court Mediator in the Chester County Court of Common Pleas.

Notably, John has been appointed a Special Master by the court to hear discovery issues and partition matters and lead the Judicial Evaluation Questionnaire Task Force as Chairman, a group which was responsible for creating the first ever survey for trial attorneys concerning Judges for the Court of Common Pleas of Chester County. John was President of the Chester County Bar Foundation and is the current President-Elect of the Chester County Bar Association. John's other positions within the Chester County Bar include Secretary, Treasurer, Vice President and President of the Board of Directors. John was also the Treasurer of the John E. Stively American Inn of Court, which is an Honor Society for trial lawyers. John's active leadership and participation was recognized when he was given the President's Award by J. Keath Fetter at the Chester County Bar Association President's Dinner. John is also President of the Legal Aid of Southeastern Pennsylvania.

John received his Bachelor's Degree from Fairleigh Dickinson University, and his law degree from the Temple University School of Law. John currently lives with his wife and two children in West Goshen Township, where he was a past President of the West Goshen Lions Club.