BIO

DONALD C. TURNER

Donald C. Turner, one of the founding members of Unruh, Turner, Burke & Frees, has been practicing law in Chester County for over 25 years. Mr. Turner is also the founding president of Commercial Dispute Solutions (“CDS”), a Pennsylvania non-profit corporation. CDS is a cooperative venture of the Chester County Bench, Bar, and business community, used to provide mediation and arbitration services for various types of commercial disputes.

Mr. Turner’s law practice is concentrated in the areas of commercial litigation, real estate transactions, and mediation/arbitration services. Mr. Turner is also involved in the general representation of a variety of small to medium size businesses, including financial institutions, real estate developers, automobile dealerships, sales organizations, software companies and manufacturing entities. Mr. Turner’s litigation, mediation and arbitration practice encompasses virtually all types of business disputes, including contractual disputes, shareholder/partnership disputes, corporate dissolutions, loan workouts, zoning appeals, land disputes and eminent domain cases.

Mr. Turner is a member of the American, Pennsylvania, and Chester County Bar Associations, as well as a member of the Loan Review Committee of Chester County Economic Development Council/South Eastern Economic Development Company of PA, and a member of the Association For Conflict Resolution.

Mr. Turner is a former auditor of West Goshen Township, a former board member of the Chester County Airport Authority and Board of Trustees of Devon Preparatory School, and a past Solicitor for Chester County Association of Realtors.

Mr. Turner received his undergraduate degree from Drexel University and his Juris Doctor, cum laude, from the Temple University School of Law.
