Symposium on Improving Public Education in Dallas Educators and Public Invited

The Dallas Bar Association will host its annual Education Symposium on Wednesday, October 30, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., at the Belo Mansion to bring together community leaders in the interest of improving public education in the Metroplex. Educators and the public are invited and encouraged to attend this program.

This year's event will focus on "Improving the Lives of Children Through Advocacy," and is sponsored by the DBA and the SMU Dedman School of Law's W.W. Caruth, Jr. Institute for Children's Rights.

Big Thought will be presented with the prestigious "Jack Lowe Sr. Award for Community Leadership" during the Symposium luncheon. The keynote speaker is Mike Guinn, Urban Youth Specialist.

Registration for the DBA member lawyers and judges (includes lunch) is $75, and $110 for non-members. A special rate of $35 per ticket is available for non-profits, Government Agencies, Educators, Foster Parents and Social Workers. Fee waivers are available if unable to afford the program. To register online, log on to <https://tinyurl.com/2019EdSymp>

Education credit hours are available for the following groups: MCLE 5.00, Social Work CEU 0.5, and CPE 5.0.

The Belo Mansion is at 2101 Ross Avenue/Pearl, in Downtown Dallas. Parking is $4 in the Belo Pavilion garage (enter from Olive Street). Seating is limited. A sell-out is expected.
