

A Community Conversation on the Importance of Diversity in Hiring for Police Agencies

Thursday, September 8th, 2016

Lilly Auditorium – IUPUI University Library

755 W Michigan St., Indianapolis, IN 46202

9:30 AM – 11:30 AM

Welcome Remarks

Marshawn Wolley

Director of Community Engagement and Strategic Initiatives
IU School of Public and Environmental Affairs - Indianapolis

Commissioner Charlotte Burrows

EEOC Commissioner

U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

Panel Discussion

Tanya Bell | President - Indiana Black Expo, Inc.

Comm. Charlotte Burrows | U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

Mark Fisher | VP of Gov't Relations & Policy Development, Indy Chamber

Rick Hite | Executive Director. Indiana Civil Rights Commission

Pastor James Jackson | Fervent Prayer Church

Anthony Mason | President - Indianapolis Urban League

Josh Minkler | U.S. Attorney, Southern District of Indiana – U.S. Attorney Office

Chris Reeder | Chief of Staff - Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department

Moderator: Dr. David Hampton, Deputy Mayor of Neighborhoods

Q & A Session

Panelist & General Public

Closing Remarks

Dr. David Hampton

Deputy Mayor of Neighborhoods

