About the Bar Leader Series

Completely refreshed for Class XVIII, the Bar Leader Series is your chance to reconnect with your community and make lasting relationships with community leaders and your peers.

The new series experience will connect class members with issues, thought leaders, and organizations crucial to our city's success. Topics on tap for Class XVIII include access to legal services, crime, early childhood education and public education, food insecurity, health care, housing and homelessness, non-profit volunteer leadership, offender re-entry, personal leadership skills, and police-community relations. Class members will also develop and execute a team service project with the support of former Bar Leader Series participants adding to their skills and network building.

About Class XVIII

The series will kick off with an icebreaker reception at IndyBarHQ in late May and the class retreat will be June 16-18 at the Bench Bar Conference at the Omni Hotel in Louisville, Kentucky. The series will continue with enhanced, interactive bi-monthly sessions on the first Tuesday of the month from 8:30 a.m. until noon at various locations around Indianapolis. Finally, the series will conclude with the class graduation celebration in June 2022 at the Bench Bar Conference.
