

Area Courts Inclement Weather Policies

Inclement weather can cause transportation problems or hazardous conditions that can vary widely in our region. Winter storms will have an impact on our day-to-day operations and court appearances. The inclement weather policies are also available on the Court Directory section of the KBA website at www.knoxbar.org.

The KBA Office follows the University of Tennessee and delays and cancellations are noted on our voicemail and on the website at www.knoxbar.org.

TN COURT OF WORKERS COMPENSATION CLAIMS

(Updated June 2016)

It shall be the policy of the state of Tennessee to make every effort to maintain normal working hours during periods of inclement weather in order to continue providing necessary services to the citizens of the State of Tennessee. Emergency conditions caused by extreme inclement weather may warrant the closing of some state offices. State office closures due to extreme inclement weather will be made on a county by county basis and will include all offices in each designated county. The decision to close state offices due to extreme inclement weather shall only be made by the Governor or his/her designee. In some extreme weather, a judge may not be able to safely travel to the court even if the state office is not closed. Notice of either situation will be timely given by placing an outgoing message on the main telephone number (865-594-5177) for the Knoxville Bureau Office and communicated by other means as appropriate. Any person who has a court date during inclement weather and is concerned for his or her safety will not be penalized if they are unable to make their court date and should contact the Knoxville Bureau Office at 865-594-5177.
