

No. 2020-08 captioned, "In Re: Kentucky Court of Justice Response to COVID-19 Emergency". Through this order, nearly all civil and criminal proceedings pending in the state justice system and which require in-person appearances have been canceled or continued generally.

Therefore, consistent with actions taken by numerous federal, state and local entities, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. All courthouses in the district remain open for business. However, subject to the specific exceptions outlined in paragraph 2 below, civil and criminal trials scheduled to begin March 16, 2020, through April 17, 2020, before any district or magistrate judge in the Western District of Kentucky, are CONTINUED FOR A MINIMUM PERIOD OF THIRTY (30) DAYS, subject to further orders of the Court. Trials previously scheduled during this period shall be rescheduled by separate order of the district or magistrate judge assigned to the matter. All trials currently in progress shall be completed at the discretion of the presiding judge.

2. Criminal matters scheduled before magistrate judges, such as initial appearances, arraignments, detention hearings, and the issuance of warrants, shall continue to take place in the ordinary course of business. Likewise, hearings scheduled before district judges during the period identified in paragraph 1 shall proceed as scheduled, subject to intervening orders of the judge assigned to the matter.

3. Any matter involving an attorney or party who is ill or in a high-risk category may be rescheduled by the presiding judge. However, counsel shall be responsible for advising the presiding judge of such illness or high-risk by filing an appropriate notice or motion containing sufficient information to allow the presiding judge to make an informed decision regarding any cancellation or continuance.

4. All grand jury proceedings in this District are CONTINUED except those that are

30-day cases or are necessary to protect the safety of the community, pending further Order of the Court.

5. Regarding criminal trials set during the period identified in paragraph 1, due to the Court's reduced ability to obtain an adequate spectrum of jurors, counsel and Court staff to be present in the courtroom and based on public health recommendations and the severity of risk posed to the public¹ the time period of the continuance caused by this General Order shall be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, as the Court specifically finds that the ends of justice served by ordering the continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant's right to a more speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Subject to intervening orders, the period of exclusion shall be from March 16, 2020 to April 17, 2020. The district judge assigned to the matter may extend this period if circumstances warrant.

The Court recognizes the right of criminal defendants to a speedy and public trial under the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and the particular application of that right in cases involving defendants who are detained pending trial. Therefore, in the event any affected party disagrees with the Court's analysis regarding the time excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, he or she may move for reconsideration in the individual case. Likewise, the government may seek reconsideration. Any motion for reconsideration shall be directed to the district judge assigned to the matter.

6. As noted in paragraph 1 above, the office of the Clerk of the Court shall remain open for business. Likewise, the United States Probation Office, and all other court services shall remain open, subject to intervening orders of the Court. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Kentucky may impose such restrictions on hearings, meetings, and other matters as that court unit determines to be necessary and appropriate.

Dated: March 13, 2020.

Greg N. Stivers, Chief Judge
United States District Court
Western District of Kentucky
