LAJ headquarters is your office in Baton Rouge

- LAJ's office is conveniently located within minutes of the Capitol, municipal complex, courthouse, federal building, and most state agencies.
- Eliminate hassles with downtown parking. Park at the LAJ office and a staff member will give you a ride to your meeting, the Capitol, etc.
- Deposition rooms at the LAJ office are available at no charge to members.
- For out-of-town members who have business in Baton Rouge, come to the LAJ office for a great cup of coffee, use of a temporary office with wireless Internet service, phone, fax and more. We're here to help you.

Opportunities for involvement and leadership

- LAJ offers several levels of leadership roles for the entire association as well as for specific regions of the state.
- LAJ coordinates Legislative Awareness Day at the Capitol, a statewide Speakers' Bureau, CLE speaking opportunities, legislative support, community involvement and public relations, Section leadership and much more.

Looking for an "edge" in your practice?

Do you want to save time and money, improve your practice, and gain an advantage for your client in court?

Would you like to have the networking and information-sharing resources of a large law firm? All of this and more are available to you through LAJ's practice sections.

Each of LAJ's practice section list servers allow users to:

- ✓ Á Get strategic advice from other trial lawyers
- ✓ Á Get the scoop on the defense experts in your case
- ✓ Á Save research time by keyword searching previous discussions
- ✓ Á Share pleadings with your colleagues

"I encourage each of you to spread the word about LAJ and this section. LAJ has done an extraordinary job in helping us serve our clients.

The Auto Torts section alone is a good reason to belong to this organization, which is the only organized group that truly addresses the needs of the plaintiff's bar."

Lonnie Stanga
Former chair,
LAJ Auto Torts Section
