Geoffrey Garin is the president of Hart Research Associates, one of the nation's leading survey research firms. He became president of Hart Research in 1984, after having worked in the firm since 1978 as a senior analyst and vice president. Mr. Garin has brought his skill, insight, and innovative approaches as a researcher and strategist to a wide variety of fields – including social and economic policy, consumer marketing, and politics.

Mr. Garin has undertaken landmark policy research for many of the nation's leading foundations and educational institutions on a wide variety of issues, including global health, school reform, health care reform, global climate change, and federal fiscal policy. His clients for this research include the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, the MacArthur Foundation, the Mott Foundation, Harvard University, and the College Board.

Mr. Garin's work has undertaken research studies on foreign policy issues for the United Nations Foundation, the U.S. Center for Global Engagement, ONE, and CARE, among others. Leading progressive organizations and labor unions rely on him for strategic research and analysis, and he conducts ongoing strategic research for companies and trade associations in energy, communications, and other sectors.
