

From: Mahoning County Probate Court
Date: Sunday, November 15, 2020
Re: Probate Court Closed to Public due to Covid outbreak
Contact: Judge Robert N. Rusu, Jr.
330-480-5231

PRESS RELEASE

Due to a recent Covid-19 outbreak in the Probate Court Clerk's Office, Judge Robert N. Rusu Jr. announces that he is closing the Court to the public effective Monday, November 16, 2020. The court will remain closed to the public until Monday, November 30, 2020.

The Court will continue to conduct all Court operations during this closing to the public; however, all hearings and other duties of the Court will be conducted via telephonically or via video conference. If you have an upcoming hearing or an appointment with the Court between November 16–30, 2020, you will be contacted by a Probate Court officer. If you are not contacted by a Probate Court officer prior to your hearing/appointment, you should call the Court at 330-740-2310.

The Court will still continue to accept all pleadings via the following methods:

1. via facsimile at (330) 740-2325;
2. via email at mcprobate@MahoningCountyOh.gov;
3. via U.S. Mail at Mahoning County Probate Court, 120 Market St., Youngstown, Ohio 44503;
4. via a drop box located inside the Mahoning County Courthouse Rotunda.

Your cooperation and understanding is appreciated during these unprecedented times.