MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE BYLAWS

ARTICLE 1 - NAME

The name of this association shall be Minnesota Association for Justice, Inc., hereinafter referred to as MAJ.

ARTICLE 2 - CORPORATE MISSION & PURPOSE

Section 1. Mission Statement. MAJ is dedicated to the Constitution's guarantee of justice for all.

Section 2. Purpose. The purpose of MAJ is to uphold and defend the principles of the Constitution of the United States; to advance the science of jurisprudence; to train in all fields and phases of advocacy; to promote the administration of justice for the public good; to uphold the honor and dignity of the profession of law; and especially to advance the cause therefore; to encourage mutual support and cooperation among members of the bar; and to uphold and improve the adversary system and trial by jury.

ARTICLE 3 - OFFICES

Section 1. Offices. The registered office MAJ shall be that address set forth in the Articles of Incorporation or in the most recent amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or statement of the Board of Governors filed with the Secretary of State of Minnesota changing the registered office in the manner prescribed by law. The corporation may have such other offices, within or without the State of Minnesota, as the Board of Governors shall from time to time determine.

ARTICLE 4 – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Levels of Membership. MAJ welcomes as members, without regard to sex, race, religion or ethnic background, all who support its mission and objectives and who are dedicated to upholding and defending the principles of the Constitution of the United States. Members shall adhere to all policies established by MAJ including, but not limited to, the application and observance of confidentiality and of nondisclosure provisions relating to confidential or sensitive information generated by MAJ or its members, a violation of which shall serve as grounds for discipline under this Article.

There shall be the following levels of membership:

MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE BYLAWS

- A. Regular Members. Any person shall be eligible for Regular Membership in MAJ if he or she is duly licensed to practice law in the state of Minnesota and who certifies that they are:, 1) of good moral character and whose practice is consistent with the objectives and goals of MAJ; 2) is engaged in any field or phase of legal advocacy; 3) is committed to the concept of a fair trial, the adversary system, the jury system and a just result for the injured, the accused, and those whose constitutional and other legal rights are jeopardized.

No person shall be eligible for or continue Regular Membership in MAJ whose practice, for the most part, represents the defense of personal injury and/or employment litigation.

A member shall be deemed a member in good standing after a signed application form is submitted, reviewed, accepted and membership dues, as determined by the Board of Governors, are paid. Upon acceptance, the signed application will serve as attestation to the membership criteria outlined herein. A person shall remain eligible to hold a Regular Membership in MAJ if he or she continues to meet the same standards upon renewal. MAJ reserves the right to review membership eligibility at any time. Regular Members in good standing shall be permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of membership in MAJ and shall have the right to vote and hold office.

- B. Tort Preservation (Sustaining) Membership. A person shall be eligible to hold a Tort Preservation (Sustaining) Membership in MAJ if he or she fulfills the criteria for Regular Membership and pays Tort Preservation (Sustaining) Membership dues as determined by the Board of Governors.

A person shall remain eligible to hold a Tort Preservation (Sustaining) Membership in MAJ provided he or she continues to meet these same standards upon renewal. Tort Preservation (Sustaining) Members in good standing shall be permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of the highest membership level of MAJ and shall have the right to vote and hold office. In addition to these benefits, Tort Preservation (Sustaining) members will receive additional recognition and privileges as defined by the Board of Governors.

- C. Retired Membership. A person shall be eligible for Retired Membership status in MAJ if he or she fulfilled the requirements of Regular Membership when he or she was actively practicing law. A person shall be eligible for a Retired Membership if they are no longer practicing law and pay Retirement Membership dues as determined by the Board of Governors. A person shall remain eligible for Retired Membership in MAJ provided he or she continues to meet these same standards upon renewal. MAJ reserves the right to review membership eligibility at any time. Retired Members in good standing shall be permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of the lowest level of membership but shall not have the right to hold office, vote or attend executive sessions of deliberative bodies of MAJ.

MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE BYLAWS

- D. Legacy Membership. A person shall be eligible for a Legacy Membership in MAJ if he or she fulfills the criteria for Regular Membership and has formally documented their commitment to name MAJ as a beneficiary in either a planned gift at retirement or bequest in a last will and testament in an amount of their choosing. In addition to the benefits Legacy Members receive as determined by their Regular Membership level, Legacy Members will receive additional recognition and privileges as defined by the Board of Governors.

A person shall remain eligible to hold a Legacy Membership in MAJ provided he or she continues to meet these same standards upon renewal. Legacy Members in good standing shall enjoy the benefits and privileges of membership in MAJ and shall have the right to vote and hold office.

- E. Alliance Membership. A person is eligible for Alliance Membership in MAJ provided he or she: 1) is of good moral character; 2) is committed to the concept of a fair trial, the adversary system, the jury system and a just result for the injured, the accused, and those whose constitutional and other legal rights are jeopardized; 3) is engaged in any field of legal support, public advocacy, the selling of products, services, and other goods to plaintiff's trial lawyers.

A member shall be deemed a member in good standing after a signed application form is submitted, reviewed, accepted and membership dues, as determined by the Board of Governors, are paid. Upon acceptance, the signed application will serve as attestation to the membership criteria outlined herein. A person shall remain eligible to hold an Alliance Membership in MAJ if he or she continues to meet the same standards upon renewal. MAJ reserves the right to review membership eligibility at any time. Alliance Members in good standing shall be permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of Alliance Membership, as defined by the Board of Governors but shall not have the right to hold office, vote or attend executive sessions of deliberative bodies of MAJ.

- F. Legal Support Specialist – A person is eligible for a Legal Support Specialist membership in MAJ if he or she is not duly licensed to practice law but who is employed by a member of MAJ as a paralegal, forensic nurse, or other legal support specialty, and who certifies that they are: 1) of good moral character; and 2) is committed and devoted to the concept of a fair trial, the adversary system, the jury system and a just result for the injured, the accused, and those whose constitutional and other legal rights are jeopardized.

A person shall be deemed a member in good standing after a signed application form is submitted, and membership dues, as determined by the Board of Governors, are paid. Upon acceptance, the signed application will serve as attestation to the membership criteria outlined herein. A person shall remain eligible to hold a Legal Support Specialist membership in MAJ if he or she continues to meet the same standards upon renewal. MAJ reserves the right to review membership eligibility at any time. Legal Support Specialist members in good standing shall be permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of Legal Support Specialist, as defined by the Board of Governors but shall not have the right to hold office, vote or attend executive sessions of deliberative bodies of MAJ. Legal Support Specialist members, however, may vote to elect officers within the Legal Support Specialist section or on matters of policy affecting the affairs of this section as provided by these Bylaws.

- G. Student Members - A student who is engaged in a course of study at a law school and who certifies that they are: 1) of good moral character; and 2) is committed to the concept of a fair trial, the adversary system, the jury system and a just result for the injured, the accused, and those whose constitutional and other legal rights are jeopardized, shall be eligible for Student Membership.

A person shall be deemed a member in good standing after a signed application form is submitted, and membership dues, as determined by the Board of Governors, are paid. Upon acceptance, the signed application will serve as attestation to the membership criteria outlined herein. A person shall remain eligible to hold a Student membership in MAJ if he or she continues to meet the same standards upon renewal. MAJ reserves the right to review membership eligibility at any time. Student members in good standing shall be permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of Student membership, as defined by the Board of Governors but shall not have the right to hold office, vote or attend executive sessions of deliberative bodies of MAJ.

Section 2. Membership Rights & Responsibilities - Each MAJ member, according to the criteria and benefits outlined in his or her membership classification and as prescribed by these bylaws, shall:

- A. Pay annual membership dues;
- B. Receive the benefits and privileges of membership; and
- C. Cast one vote at MAJ Membership meetings.

Any MAJ member in good standing may also be eligible to:

- A. Serve on one or more MAJ committee and otherwise participate in the affairs of MAJ;
- B. Hold office or any position in MAJ.

Section 3. Membership Dues - Dues shall be set by the Board of Governors, as they may deem appropriate from time to time, for the various classes of membership as provided for in these Bylaws. Dues shall become payable in full at the beginning of each fiscal year, or on each anniversary of a member's initial date of membership.

Section 4. Membership Renewal- Membership in MAJ shall be renewed annually for a period of one year upon payment of dues, provided that the member continues to meet all other criteria for membership as specified in their membership classification. Membership renewal anniversaries are counted from the date of initial acceptance of membership. MAJ reserves the right to review membership eligibility at any time.

Section 5 Termination of Membership -

A. Resignation: A member may resign by submitting a written resignation to MAJ. Such resignation shall be effective on the date submitted, provided the member has satisfied any outstanding member obligations to MAJ.

B. Disbarment: A member who is disbarred shall automatically be removed from membership.

C. Suspension from Practice: A member suspended from practice shall be suspended from membership for as long as said period of suspension from practice continues. Upon reinstatement to the practice of law in Minnesota, the member may be returned to their previously held membership status, subject to and upon the approval of, the Board of Governors upon termination of said suspension.

D. Expulsion, Suspension or Censure: A member may be expelled, suspended or censured for unethical conduct or for misconduct bringing discredit to said member, MAJ or the legal profession. This power shall rest exclusively in the Board of Governors which may authorize the President to appoint a committee of three (3) to hear complaints or grievances made against a member. A member shall receive thirty (30) days' notice in writing of any complaint made against said member. The notice shall specify the charges against the member and shall advise the member of the time and place of the hearing. The hearing will be held either before the Board of Governors or a committee appointed in accordance with this section. The member may appear and present evidence on his/her behalf. If the hearing is held before a committee, the committee shall report its findings to the Board of Governors which will then decide whether to expel, suspend or censure the member. Expulsion, suspension or censure of a member shall require three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board of Governors present and voting.

E. Defense Work: Any member of MAJ whose practice includes defense of personal injury and/or employment litigation shall not use, share or reproduce information gleaned from MAJ in their defense work and shall not share communications (emails, list serve posts etc.), members only publications and seminar materials or any other MAJ products and services with attorney's whose practice involves primarily the defense of personal injury or an attorney who is not a member of MAJ.

F. Failure to pay dues. Failure to pay dues determined by the Board of Governors and as required by these bylaws shall result in automatic termination as a member of MAJ ninety (90) calendar days following notification of membership renewal. Membership benefits may be denied, and a member shall be deemed to be not in good standing during any period dues remain unpaid. A member may rejoin MAJ and regain all membership benefits and status and member in good standing upon payment of all dues, assessments and payments in arrears.

ARTICLE 5 - MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Time and Place of Meetings- Regular or special meetings of the members, if any, shall be held on the date and at the time and place as may be designated by the Board of Governors.

Section 2. Annual Meeting- There shall be an annual meeting of the members of MAJ to be held at such date, time and place as shall be designated by the Board of Governors.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings. Written notice for any meeting of the full MAJ membership, shall be mailed or e-mailed to each member entitled to vote, at his/her last address as shown by the books of MAJ, a notice setting out the place, date and hour of any regular meeting or special meeting of MAJ. The notice shall be mailed or e-mailed at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the meeting; except as otherwise provided by statute. Notice of any special meeting shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting. The business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the purposes stated in the notice.

Section 4. Call of Special Meetings- Special meetings of the members may be called for any purpose or purposes of the President, or by the President or Secretary of Minnesota Justice at the request of the Board of Governors or at the request of forty (40) or more members by giving written notice or demand to the President or other officer of Minnesota Justice, and containing the purposes of the meeting. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the demand by one (1) of the officers, the Board of Governors shall cause the President to call a special meeting of the members, such meeting to be called and held on notice no later than ninety (90) days after the receipt of the demand.

Section 5. Quorum - Five percent (5%) of the members entitled to vote at any meeting, present in person, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any regular or special meeting of the full MAJ membership. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened, the members present may continue to transact business until adjournment, even though the withdrawal of several members originally present leaves less than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum. In case a quorum is not present at any meeting, those members present shall have the power to adjourn the meeting, by a majority vote, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until the requisite number of voting shares shall be represented. Any business that would have been transacted at the original meeting must be tabled at adjournment and taken up when the next full membership meeting is called, and the required number of members are represented.

Section 6. Voting- At each meeting of the members, each Regular Member or membership level with voting rights, shall have one (1) vote. Upon the demand of any member, vote upon any question for the meeting shall be by written ballot. All elections shall be determined, and all questions decided by a majority vote of the members entitled to vote and represented at any meeting at which there is a quorum except as otherwise required by statute. There shall be no cumulative voting.

Section 7. Proxy. Regular Members of MAJ may vote by proxy at any regularly or specially called general meeting of the membership. All proxies shall be in writing signed by the member or by his/her duly authorized attorney in fact. Such proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of Minnesota Justice before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid three (3) months from the date of execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

Section 8. Record Date. The Board of Governors may fix a time, not exceeding sixty (60) days preceding the date of any regular meeting of MAJ members, as a date for the determination of the members entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting.

Section 9. Membership Lists. MAJ shall, at least ten (10) days before each meeting of its members, make a complete list of the members entitled to vote at such meeting, or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of such member. Proxies shall be provided to those members who make a written request twenty (20) days prior to the meeting of members, such list shall also be produced and kept open at the meeting of the members and shall be open for inspection by any member during the time of the meeting.

ARTICLE 6 - BOARD OF GOVERNORS

Section 1. Authority -The Board of Governors shall be the governing body of MAJ and shall direct its affairs. The Board of Governors shall have full power and authority in intervals between the annual and regular or special meetings of MAJ to do all acts and perform all functions which MAJ itself may do or perform.

Section 2 Composition - The Board of Governors shall be comprised of:

- A. The officers of MAJ;
- B. members annually elected to serve on the Board of Governors as prescribed by these bylaws;
- C. American Association for Justice State Delegates;
- D. MAJ MSBA Delegate;
- E. American Association for Justice Board of Governor members;

The current MAJ President may appoint to the Board of Governors:

- A. The Chair and/or Co-Chair of MAJ's new Lawyers Section elected in accordance with Article 14 Section 6, Clause A to serve as ex-officio, non-voting member of the Board of Governors exempt from paying the required Board dues.
- B. The Chair and/or Co-Chair of MAJ's Women for Justice Section elected in accordance with Article 14, Section 6, Clause C, to serve as ex-officio, non-voting member of the Board of Governors exempt from paying the required Board dues.

Section 3. American Association for Justice (AAJ) State Delegates - State Delegates shall be the liaison between the Board of Governors of AAJ and MAJ, and it shall be the responsibility of the State Delegates to assist the Board of Governors of AAJ in attaining the objectives of AAJ by carrying out specific programs assigned to them by the Board of Governors or President. MAJ shall have two (2) delegates, one (1) to be elected each year. In the event of a vacancy in the office of State Delegate, upon notification by the Secretary of AAJ, MAJ may select an eligible member to serve the remainder of the term and shall certify that successor to the Chief Executive Officer of the AAJ within thirty (30) days after notice has been given.

Section 4. American Association for Justice (AAJ) Board Members - MAJ shall nominate at the annual convention of AAJ, to be elected as members of the Board of Governors of AAJ, such members as are provided for in the Bylaws of that Association. Such member or members shall have the duties and responsibilities as further provided in the Bylaws of AAJ. In the event of a vacancy in such office, MAJ may select an eligible member to serve the remainder of the term and shall certify that successor to the Chief Executive Officer of the AAJ within thirty (30) days after notice has been given of such vacancy. Members of the Board of Governors shall also serve as a liaison with MAJ and shall bring to the Board of Governors of the AAJ such items of business as designated by the Board of Governors of MAJ. Such members shall be elected for a term of three (3) years.

Section 5. The Founders Society - Members deemed by the Board of Governors to merit distinction by long-standing contributions or outstanding services made to the objectives and goals of Minnesota Justice may be designated as members of the Founders Society. Members of the Founders Society shall be elected by the general membership upon recommendation of the Nominating Committee. No more than three may be elected in 1998; no more than two may be elected in 1999 and no more than one may be elected each year thereafter. Members of the Founders Society shall receive the benefits, rights and privileges of the Board of Governors provided they are current members of Minnesota Justice.

Section 6. Number- The Board of Governors shall be no less than ten (10) nor more than fifty-five (55) at-large members elected from a slate of candidates developed by the Nominations Committee and submitted to the Board of Governors, with the concurrence of the Executive Committee, for a vote at the MAJ annual membership meeting in the year immediately preceding the year in which they will serve on the Board of Governors. The number of Governors shall be determined by the members at each annual meeting; Former presidents of the MAJ and any Governors having served ten consecutive years are emeritus members of the Board of Governors and shall receive the benefits, rights and privileges of the Board provided they are current members of the MAJ and pay the annual dues required for Board of Governors membership.

MAJ and shall be elected at the annual meeting by a majority vote. Each Governor shall:

- a. be elected to serve for one (1) year or until his/her successor shall be duly elected and qualified;
- b. be MAJ members in good standing paying dues at the two highest levels of membership;
- c. agree by written declaration, prior to election, not to serve on the faculty of any legal seminar which involves the same or similar subject matter as any MAJ sponsored

MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE BYLAWS

- seminar within 3 months prior to or subsequent thereto without the written approval of the MAJ Education Committee during the term of service as a MAJ Governor;
- d. not serve more than ten (10) consecutive terms; and

Any Governor serving ten (10) consecutive years shall then become an emeritus member of the Board of Governors provided they are current members of the association and pay the annual dues required for Board of Governors membership.

Section 7. Meetings, Place and Notice.

- A. Meetings. The Board of Governors may hold meetings from time to time at any place and time as may be called by the President or by the Secretary when requested to do so upon written demand by three (3) members of the Board of Governors.
- B. Notice. The notice shall set forth the purpose of the meeting and shall be in writing and may be given by mail, facsimile or electronically at least ten (10) days prior to such meeting. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken.
- C. Waiving of Notification. A Governor may waive notice of a meeting of the Board of Governors. A waiver of notice by a Governor entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting and whether given in writing, orally or by attendance. Attendance by a Governor at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the Governor objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and then does not participate thereafter in the meeting.

Section 8. Authorization without Meeting. An action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Governors may be taken by written action signed by all the Governors or the action may be taken by written action signed by the number of Governors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the Board of Governors at which all Governors were present. The written action is effective when signed by the required number of Governors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all the Governors, all Governors shall be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action.

Section 9. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Governors, ten (10) Governors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the Governors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until the next requisite number of Governors shall be present. The Governors present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of several governors originally present.

MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE BYLAWS

Section 10. Vacancies. Except with respect to the initial election of a Governor to fill a newly created governorship resulting from an increase in the number of Governors by action of the Board of Governors, in the manner as permitted by statute, if the office of any Governor becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or otherwise, the Governors then in office, although less than a quorum, by a majority vote, may choose a successor who shall hold office for the unexpired term relating to such vacancy.

Section 11. Executive Committee Authority - The Board of Governors shall elect from its members an Executive Committee which shall have and exercise all the authority of the Board of Governors in the governing of the business of MAJ. Such Executive Committee shall act only in the interval between meetings of the Board of Governors and shall be subject at all times to control and direction by the Board of Governors.

A. Membership. The Executive Committee shall consist of:

1. MAJ's five (5) officers;
2. two (2) former MAJ presidents who served in past years one and two;
3. MAJ's Legislative Committee Chair
4. three (3) members of the AAJ Board of Governors;
5. MAJ member representative to the MSBA Board of Governors; and
6. Six (6) members of the Board of Governors who are not officers of MAJ.
7. Former presidents of the Minnesota Association for Justice having served in past years three (3), four (4) and five (5), are emeritus members of the Executive Committee and shall receive the benefits, rights and privileges of the Executive Committee, provided they are current members of MAJ and pay the annual dues required for Board of Governors membership.

B. Elections and Terms of Executive Committee. The Board of Governors shall elect their members to serve on the Executive Committee. The terms of all members of the Executive Committee shall be one (1) year.

C. Meetings & Quorum of Executive Committee. Seven (7) members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum and action shall be decided by a majority vote except as provided otherwise. The President may request a telephone, mail or electronic vote of the Executive Committee in which event action shall require the affirmative vote of seven (7) members. The Executive Committee shall keep minutes of its meetings, which shall be available upon request to the members of the Board of Governors.

Section 12. Use of Name. Governors. Officers and Executive Committee members shall not permit their title or office to be used in connection with any campaign for elective or appointive public office.

Section 13. Conflict of Interest.

MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE BYLAWS

- A. An officer whose impartiality or loyalty to the interests of MAJ or the public interest in a matter involving or pending before MAJ because of a personal interest, another office or position held by the officer, or the interests of a client, are in conflict, shall disclose the conflict of interest and shall recuse him/herself from presiding on any consideration of the matter or from participating in any vote on the matter.
- B. In representing a client or in making public statements in a personal capacity or as an officer, representative, or spokesperson for a person or entity other than MAJ, an officer shall not state or imply that statements made are those of MAJ, shall not use MAJ's name or the office/position held in MAJ and when necessary to avoid confusion, shall expressly state that the statements made are not made on behalf of MAJ and do not necessarily represent the views or position of MAJ on an issue.
- C. When an officer cannot serve as a spokesperson for MAJ on a matter do to a conflict of interest, the officer shall recuse him/herself from the matter and shall notify the rest of the officers and Executive Director of the recusal.
- D. The Board of Governors or Executive Committee may adopt rules and policies for determining when a conflict of interest exists and for prescribing the procedure for determining when an officer is disqualified from consideration or participation in a matter

Section 14. Removal - The removal of a Governor for good cause may be affected by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board of Governors present and voting, provided however that notice of intent to propose such action is given in writing to the member and the Board of Governors at least sixty (60) days prior to the vote. Such notice will state specifically the grounds proposed for such removal.

Section 15. Attendance - Recognizing that attendance at Board Meetings and functions is an inherent responsibility of Board of Governor membership, the Executive Committee of Minnesota Justice may at its discretion, recommend to the Board of Governors, the removal of one of its members for unreasonable failure to attend meetings or functions.

section. A chair or co-chair may be appointed by the current President to also serve as ex-officio, non-voting member of the Board of Governors exempt from paying the required Board dues and shall set policy and programmatic priorities affecting the affairs of this Section.

ARTICLE 15 – AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present, at a duly called meeting for that purpose. Amendments may be proposed either by a petition of ten percent (10%) or more of the members of MAJ, or by resolution of the Board of Governors. Such amendments shall be proposed in writing not less than sixty (60) days prior to a meeting of the members called for amending the bylaws or the Annual meeting and shall be circulated to the membership in written form not less than thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting.

ARTICLE 16 - TRIAL PAC

Section 1. There shall be a political fund established by the MAJ, hereafter known as TRIAL-PAC, registered with the Minnesota Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board.

Section 2. The political fund shall maintain a separate checking account, and a separate trust account shall be created to screen the source of funding to ensure that no corporate contributions enter the political fund.

Section 3. The political fund shall be voluntary donations. The amount of dues allocated to the political fund shall be determined by a majority vote of the Board of Governors.

Section 4. The President shall appoint a TRIAL-PAC Committee; designate a committee chair, a secretary-treasurer, and a TRIAL-PAC Administrator.

Section 5. The TRIAL-PAC Committee and the TRIAL-PAC Administrator shall be responsible for soliciting, receiving, holding, administering, investing and disbursing political gifts or contributions made to it by the MAJ, Lawyers, and other associations and interested persons to be used for the past, present or future contributions to candidates for political or public office or for similar purposes. The activities of the committee shall conform in all respects to the laws of the State of Minnesota and of the United States.

MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE BYLAWS

Section 6. The TRIAL-PAC Committee or its Administrator shall have the authority to incur expenses necessary to carry out the purposes of the political fund. These expenses shall be paid by the MAJ. The members of the committee shall serve without compensation.

Section 7. The secretary-treasurer of the political fund shall be responsible for the preparation of and retention of the minutes of the committee meetings and maintenance of such other records as may become required by the State or Federal Government. The secretary-treasurer shall be responsible for the control of the monies during possession thereof by the committee. He/she shall be responsible for the investment of surplus funds consonant with State and Federal laws and shall be responsible for the filing of any returns or reports required by State or Federal law.

Section 8. The TRIAL-PAC administrator may select a Certified Public Accountant to perform an audit at the close of the fiscal year. The fiscal year shall run concurrent with the fiscal year of the Minnesota Association for Justice (MAJ).

Section 9. Campaign contributions will be made to appropriate candidates for elective office in Minnesota. The decisions to be made as to recipients and as to amounts shall be the sole prerogative of a majority of the TRIAL-PAC Committee, with the exception that the TRIAL-PAC Administrator may decide to make expenditures for political fundraising events. The Committee will consider recommendations from any source, but they may not delegate the final decision authority.

Section 10. Parliamentary decisions shall be determined by Roberts Rules of Order. A quorum shall be three-fifths of the incumbent committee.

Section 11. Meetings of the committee shall be by a call of the Committee Chair. In addition, a meeting shall be called by the chair at the written request of two members of the committee. There shall be not less than one committee meeting each fiscal year.
