Subject: VTLA Business Partners Standing By to Help You

Importance: High

VTLA Business Partners are ready to partner with you NOW!

See below for special messages from our partners on how they can help your firm during the COVID-19 crisis.

Platinum Partner
MediVisuals

MediVisuals has procedures in place which can help if you and your staff are working with either fewer people or from home:

- Our HIPAA compliant server has provided an easy way to upload all digital files (records & films) for the last 5 years. There are step-by-step instructions on our website. Click on the FILE UPLOAD button at the top of the homepage at MediVisuals.com to get started.
- With the largest in-house Stock library in the nation, our team can help you choose the best Stock exhibits and/or animations for your client. Illustration exhibits can be emailed as standard resolution digital files or printed on boards, and animations can be downloaded by you via an emailed link. Our store.medivisuals.com website allows you to pay for and download exhibit files straight to your computer. Please indicate whether you are looking for Stock or Custom visuals in your initial communication with us.
- With 15 medical illustrators/animators with master's degrees in three locations, we have good coverage for your needs and have taken steps for our staff to work from home as necessary. However, as we don't know how many illustrators/animators might need to eventually work from home, please allow extra time for custom exhibits to be prepared.
- Rob Choi, with our Trial & Mediation Presentation Services, has worked with many clients remotely using Zoom video conferencing to help create effective presentations for mediations and Video Settlement Packages. Since his schedule can fill up quickly, call or email early: rchoi@medivisuals.com or 800-899-2153.

PLCP

America's Leading Life Care Planner

Platinum Partner
Physician Life Care Planning

We are currently open for your questions and needs. Often times our clients come across deadlines that are hard to meet, sometimes, those deadline crunches and expedite fees can be avoided by just sending us the case a couple weeks sooner. By scheduling a Free Consultation during these times, PLCP is happy to help you identify any cases that a Life Care Plan or other Damages Valuation Services might be necessary. Please call on us as needed.
