

■ CONNECT

Our listservers are your fastest way to answers from members who are walking in your shoes. The general [natle] list includes all members, the CEO and select AAJ staff.

■ MAKE MONEY

We offer opportunities to earn nondues revenue for your association, often while providing valuable services to your members.

■ LEARN

With Annual and Winter Meetings focusing on association management and a Governmental Affairs Conference focused on legislative and political activities, there's always an opportunity to learn the latest and best ways to help your organization reach its goals.

■ SUCCEED

Whether in the office or at the capitol, we're here to ensure your ability to protect and ensure justice for all. To do that, your organization must be thriving with members and givers, too. We can help with that.

■ LEAD

The board governs and you manage. The Leadership Symposium is the best place for you and your elected leaders to learn the best ways to do this ensuring a successful relationship between leaders and staff.

■ ENGAGE

When the going gets tough there's nowhere you'd rather be than with colleagues who know exactly what your challenges are. We always have your back.
