

MEMORIAL RESOLUTION FOR
JAMES TYRE HAVRON

James Tyre Havron passed away August 5, 2010. Jim was people's lawyer. He did not represent powerful corporations or major government bodies. He represented the every day citizens whose cases were as important to them, regardless of the amount in dispute, or the social standing of the client as those of the wealthy and powerful.

Jim attended Vanderbilt University, David Lipscomb College, and Cumberland School of Law. He maintained an active practice of law for over fifty years, and he was practicing until the day of his untimely death. He was a proud veteran of the Korean War.

Jim served thirteen years as the Metropolitan Public Defender where he mentored numerous young lawyers many of whom went on to serve as judges or have distinguished themselves in the practice of law.

Jim raised six children, all of whom are productive citizens, he also had six grandchildren with whom he enjoyed spending time. Jim was a great example to his colleagues and children. He practiced law with a wonderful calmness being able to disagree with his fellow lawyers without being disagreeable, but could show a hard tough edge when necessary while representing his clients. Jim was a true gentleman in his relationships in the Nashville community as a whole and the members of the bar in particular. An agreement with his fellow attorneys did not need to be in writing, his word was always good and never questioned.

The Nashville community is a better place because he served his community, the law and his clients.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Nashville Bar Association that we honor the life and work of James Tyre Havron and mourn his passing remembering those whose life he touched.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this memorial resolution be placed in the permanent records of the association and entered in the "In Memoriam" minute book of the Chancery Court of Davidson County, Tennessee and that copies thereof be furnished to members of his family, his wife, Jane, his children James, Janet, Robert, Douglas, Jessica, and Kathleen, his sister Margaret and father James C. Havron.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

R. PRICE NIMMO, (BPR#2253)

CHANCELLOR
