

CLE Film Festival | Marshall

Presented by the NBA Diversity Committee and Napier-Looby Bar Association

PRESENTERS

THE HONORABLE KELVIN JONES
Circuit Court Judge

DUMAKA SHABAZZ
Assistant Federal Public Defender, Federal Public Defender's Office

OVERVIEW

Are you looking for a fun way to earn your ethics and professionalism CLE credits? Enjoy an entertaining and thought-provoking film as you uncover legal ethics and professionalism traps and pitfalls.

This CLE seminar features Marshall, a biographical legal drama that depicts a young Thurgood Marshall, the first African American United States Supreme Court Justice, as he faces some of his greatest challenges while working as a lawyer for the NAACP. Following the film, join presenters and colleagues for a lively discussion surrounding the many ethical and professionalism issues that the film brings to life.

This program is FREE to attend; CLE credit is available by paying a fee.
