

MEMORIAL RESOLUTION FOR GINGER GODWIN MARLOWE-MCKAY

WHEREAS, GINGER GODWIN MARLOWE-MCKAY, physically left this life on April 25, 2014, however her gentle spirit and legacy lives on among her family, friends, and colleagues.

Ginger was born to Mary Ellen Potter and Rudy Godwin. She had one brother, Greer Godwin. Ginger was married William (Will) McKay. After marrying Will, she not only became a mother to Rachel Leigh McKay, but she also became a step-mother to Jillian Lee McKay and Chrissy Thomas, and a step-grandmother to Lillian Rose. Ginger's primary focus was being a good mother to Rachel.

Ginger graduated from high school in Canada. She obtained a Bachelor's Degree at Tennessee Tech in Cookeville, Tennessee. Ginger worked for the American Cancer Society and obtained a paralegal degree. Upon receiving her paralegal degree, she worked for Bowen, Riley, Warnock & Jacobson in Nashville. Because Ginger was so sharp and detail oriented, friends and family encouraged her to go to law school. Ginger attended the Nashville School of Law and graduated in 2000. Ginger began her practice with former husband, Billy Marlowe, in 2004. She was more of a "behind the scenes" attorney. Ginger was intelligent, independent, and ambitious. She had a reputation for being meticulous in the practice of law, which served Marlowe Law Offices well.

Although Ginger and Billy went their separate ways personally, they continued to practice law together until Ginger died. She and Billy also remained friends. Billy introduced Ginger to Will McKay. This spoke and continues to speak volumes as to Ginger's kind and gentle spirit. She was a friend to everyone she met.

Ginger did not care as much about money as she cared about the happiness of others. She was very generous with her resources. Ginger sponsored young people to be able to attend the Fraternal Order of Police summer youth camp. Ginger sponsored youth T-Ball and football teams. She always took angels from the Salvation Army Angel Tree and gave tirelessly to the American Cancer Society. She gave of her resources, but did not seek recognition.

While I did not practice with Ginger or have many cases against Ginger, we were members of the same church, New Hope Baptist Church in Hermitage, where she served in the children's ministry. We developed a close relationship at New Hope. I loved to see her laugh.

Ginger was loved and admired by family, friends, colleagues, and her church family.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Nashville Bar Association that I honor the life of my friend and sister in Christ, Ginger Godwin Marlowe-McKay.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, the undersigned designated to memorialize the life and memory of Ginger Godwin Marlowe- McKay, respectfully make Motion to this Honorable Chancery Court for the Twentieth Judicial District of Tennessee that this Resolution be accepted and spread upon the pages of the In Memoriam book kept for that purpose, to the end that the memory of my friend and colleague will forever be perpetuated in the permanent record of the profession she served so well.

Respectfully submitted on this the 20th day of November, 2014

PAULA OGLE BLAIR

CHANCELLOR
