

MEMORIAL RESOLUTION FOR

433

DEWEY W. PEDIGO, SR.

1921-1997

Dewey Pedigo was born in Warren County, Tennessee on March 4, 1921. He married Daisie Pedigo and they resided in Davidson County until his death on April 9, 1997. Dewey graduated from high school in Cannon County, Tennessee. He attended and graduated from Middle Tennessee State University. He spent 39 months in the United States Navy, assigned to the Pacific Theater, in World War II.

Upon his discharge, Dewey was employed by the Veterans Administration in Nashville, Tennessee. While working in the day, Dewey attended the Nashville YMCA Night Law School. Upon graduation, Dewey took and passed the bar in 1950.

Dewey began earnestly the practice of law in 1953. He concentrated in real estate and probate; however, his practice was of a general nature. Dewey Pedigo, Sr. enjoyed the practice of law. He shared this enthusiasm with all those around him. Any conversation with Dewey would ultimately end up with a discussion on some fine point in the law. Dewey remained a student of the law up until his death. The week before his death, he drafted and prepared Wills for clients. Dewey's death, at the age of 76, is a loss sadly felt by our legal community.

WHEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Nashville Bar Association that in the life and record of Dewey W. Pedigo, Sr., as a member of the Nashville Bar, we and the City of Nashville generally have been honored and blessed, and in his passing we have sustained a grievous, personal loss; that this Memorial Resolution be placed in the permanent records of the Association and entered on the "In Memorandum" Minute Book of the Chancery Court of Davidson County; and that copies thereof be furnished to the members of Dewey W. Pedigo's family, his surviving widow, Daisie Pedigo, and his son, Dewey W. Pedigo, Jr.

This the 20th day of November, 1997.
