

NHAJ General List Serve Attestation

Participation in the NHAJ General Listserv is limited to voting members who have read and agreed to comply with NHAJ Listserv Policies as set forth below and listed on the NHAJ website. Any changes or updates to the below policies will be listed on the NHAJ website.

These policies have been voted upon and approved by the NHAJ Board of Governors and are intended to preserve the utility and collegiality of this member benefit.

The purpose of the NHAJ General Listserv is to exchange and share information among NHAJ members to enable online discussion of topics relevant to law practice, trial strategies and the like, and to assist NHAJ members' pursuit of legal recourse for victims of negligence through quality, skillful, and ethical legal representation.

Participants in the NHAJ General Listserv must be voting members of NHAJ. Each participant must sign the following attestation:

"I _____ (Print full name) certify that insurance defense work does not make up more than 10% of my law practice."

I understand that eligibility to be a member of this group/list is dependent on these conditions, and if this status changes, I agreed to notify the moderator(s) and/or administrator(s) of this list, and to withdraw my membership, immediately.

I understand that a false statement or misrepresentation of my eligibility to be on this list constitutes grounds for expulsion from the listserv and may provide grounds for expulsion from NHAJ. I further understand that the moderator(s)/administrator(s) of this group may report any false statement or misrepresentation of my eligibility to the disciplinary authorities of the NH Bar.

I take full responsibility for any actions performed using my user name and password. With each post I send, open or read, I certify my continuing eligibility to be a member of this listserv. I further certify that I will not forward or share listserv emails to any non-member.

I accept full responsibility for any copyright infringement or any other legal actions which may be brought as a result of information that I post. I shall hold the list moderator(s)/administrator(s), NHAJ and its Board of Governors harmless from any such claims and/or actions.

I agree to comply with the rules of the list as set forth above and in the NHAJ Listserv Policy, available online. I understand and agree that the moderator(s) and/or administrator(s) of this list may cancel my membership for violations of the rules of the list serve.
