Judges, Juries and Justice:

Chief Justice Broderick Speaks to New Hampshire Association for Justice

Concord, NH, April 10, 2008: Chief Justice Broderick will address trial lawyers at the Annual Meeting and Dinner of the New Hampshire Association for Justice on Thursday, June 26, 2008 at the Bedford Village Inn.

The New Hampshire Association for Justice is a membership organization for trial attorneys working to protect the integrity of the civil judicial system in the name of justice for all.

Chief Justice Broderick, a founding member of the Association, will speak to the role of trial lawyers, judges and juries in the civil justice system. Senator Joseph Foster, also a long time member of the New Hampshire Association for Justice, will introduce Chief Justice Broderick.

Senator Foster will be joined at the Annual Dinner by numerous other state leaders as the Association honors the winners of the Civil Justice Award (celebrating attorneys whose work has helped keep the scales of justice in balance), the Special Recognition Award (celebrating advocacy for justice), and Board of Governor awards. Dinner and awards begin at 6:30 pm. The keynote address by Justice Broderick begins at 7:30 p.m.
