

Circle only one answer.

Please respond to the following questions or statements:

1. Our civil law generally provides that if a plaintiff demonstrates that a defendant was negligent, and that negligence was a substantial contributing factor causing injury to the plaintiff then the plaintiff is entitled to fair and reasonable compensation. How do you feel about that?

- A. strongly agree
- B. agree
- C. no opinion
- D. disagree
- E. strongly disagree

2. A person who brings a claim for injuries does not automatically receive money damages. How do you feel about that?

- A. strongly agree
- B. agree
- C. no opinion
- D. disagree
- E. strongly disagree

3. In defending a claim, a defendant is able to challenge the basis for that claim by having the plaintiff examined by a doctor selected by the defense. How do you feel about that?

- A. strongly agree
- B. agree
- C. no opinion
- D. disagree
- E. strongly disagree

4. A general premise of our civil law is that injured persons should be compensated for their injuries and that those responsible for the injury should bear the cost of their negligent conduct. How do you feel about that?

- A. strongly agree
- B. agree
- C. no opinion
- D. disagree
- E. strongly disagree

5. React to the following: It is claimed by some, that most people who bring lawsuits for injuries fake or exaggerate their injuries. How do you feel about that?

- A. strongly agree
- B. agree
- C. no opinion
- D. disagree
- E. strongly disagree