Motions to Dismiss can be dangerous and deadly to your case.

We'll address the top five most dangerous and how to successfully counter their potentially case-ending affects including:

- Successor representatives
- Out of state residence bonds
- Professional negligence affidavits
- Service on foreign nationals
- 16.1 and JCCR

Presented by: Steven Baker, Esq.

Steven Baker is a highly experienced civil attorney who has spent his entire career representing injury victims. He is a member of both the Million Dollar and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum.

Steve has taught numerous law classes at the College of Southern Nevada, has guest lectured at the Boyd School of Law. Additionally, he proudly serves (with his law partner John Bertoldo) as Special Counsel to the Mexican Consulate of the State of Nevada. Steve was the 2009 President of the Nevada Justice Association.
