CONVENTION SPEAKER SNAPSHOT

Brian Panish, Esq., one of the country's leading trial attorneys, has obtained some of the most significant jury verdicts in United States history on behalf of plaintiffs. Mr. Panish is a member of the prestigious Inner Circle of Advocates, is a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers, the International Society of Barrister, and the American Board of Trial Advocates. He knows how to maximize damages and will share his expertise and insights.

Tad Thomas, Esq., comes to us from Louisville, Kentucky. Tad is the current Parliamentarian of AAJ so if there is anything you want to know about what is happening nationally, Tad is your guy. His practice expertise is in products liability cases.

Megan Hottman, Esq., is from Denver, Colorado. Megan has a specialty niche in her practice representing injured cyclists and she is on the board of the Colorado Trial Lawyers Association. She is going to talk about finding a balance in your life, so you stay healthy and at the top of your game.

Navan Ward, Esq., is from Atlanta, Georgia and is known for his metal-on-metal hip implant cases where he was a lead lawyer in the MDL. He has taken on other massive medical device and drug cases like hormone therapy and Vioxx. He serves as AAJ's Treasurer and is a nationally sought after speaker.

Patrick Leverty, Esq., is NJA's incoming president and will lead us in the 2019 legislative session. Pat holds an LLM in Insurance Law and his Reno-based practice focuses heavily on insurance bad faith issues. He is past President of the Nevada State Bar young lawyer's division.

Steven Gursten, Esq., hails from Michigan and has personally litigated more than 300 trucking collision cases. He understands the nuances of brain injuries both mild and severe and will use a tactical approach to teach you the best methods for you to use in your own practice.

Mark Zamora, Esq., is a Florida lawyer active in his community and currently on the board of the Southern Trial Lawyers Association. While he has vast experience in mass torts like Hydroxycut, he is an absolute master of social media discovery and how to use it during trial.

Rahul Ravipudi, Esq., is a partner at Panish Shea & Boyle LLP. 2017 Trial Lawyer of the Year for the Consumer Attorneys Association of LA and has obtained numerous landmark verdicts. He will be sharing his expertise on how to maximize damages and gain the best result for your client.

Jay Urban, Esq., is from Milwaukee and will be the president of the Wisconsin Association for Justice in 2020. His dedication to trial practice led him to take a case to the Wisconsin appellate court over just $750 to affirm their make whole subrogation law. It's next-level work turns law into art.

Brian Galligan, Esq., hails from Des Moines, Iowa and is the son of a trial lawyer. His firm fights for those whose lives have been torn apart by injury or death. His courtroom record is that of a fierce advocate, having taken challenging cases to trial and won them over and over.

Shean Williams, Esq., is a master of taking the complex themes of a case and making them appealing to the jury. This southern gentleman from Georgia keeps his finger on the pulse of his community by donating his time for numerous charities and organizations. He is a member of both AAJ and GTLA and will inspire you to become a jury whisperer.

Joe Camerlengo, Esq., is truly a guru when it comes to serious trucking cases. He hails from Florida and is part of the "dream team" of truck crash cases. Trucking cases have more complex liability determinations and Joe is going to set you up for success when you are conducting your case evaluations.

Christian Morris, Esq., was born and raised in Maine, but lucky for all of us in Nevada, landed in Las Vegas. Christian has rapidly become a sought-after attorney and lecturer while her courtroom success keeps stacking up. She's a firm believer in getting more lawyers in the courtroom to try cases. She serves on NJA's board and is a CFJ PAC trustee.

Jessica Pride, Esq., joins us from San Diego. She has spent the last decade taking cases on behalf of women who have been sexually assaulted. She helps victims find their voice and understand that it is not their fault.

Micha Star Liberty, Esq., is coming down from Oakland to discuss her practice of representing victims of serious sexual assault and abuse. She is an AAJ state delegate and received CAOC's "Street Fighter of the Year" award in 2015.

Richard Shulte, Esq., joins us from Dayton, Ohio. He is a current member of the AAJ Board of Governors and a past president of the Ohio Association for Justice. His practice areas include mass torts and class actions. He's taken on some of the biggest corporations in the country and routinely prevailed.

Timothy Menter, Esq., is a Southern California lawyer who is an insurance coverage authority. Additionally, he knows everything about everything to do with breach of contract, bad faith, subrogation, contribution and risk transfer issues.
