

Sarah E. Kuchon

Sarah Kuchon is a shareholder of Hohauser Kuchon concentrating her practice in the area of personal injury litigation.

Sarah has served on the OCBA Board of Directors since 2015. Since the beginning of her career, Sarah has been a forthright advocate for our profession. She has been active in bar associations on both the state and local levels. Sarah has been an active member of the Oakland County Bar Association since 2000, and a sustaining member since 2011. As an active member of the OCBA, the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan, the Women's Bar Association of Oakland County, a Fellow of the Oakland County Bar Foundation and a Fellow of the Michigan State Bar Foundation, Sarah regularly attends, sponsors and supports the Bars' events. She has served on various Committees of the Bars. Sarah served as a captain in the 2015 Circuit-Probate Court Bench Bar Conference and co-chaired the event in 2017. Sarah has also served on the Representative Assembly of the State Bar of Michigan, has sat as a Director at Large of the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan Board of Directors and currently serves as a Commissioner for the State Bar of Michigan. Sarah received the OCBA Professionalism award in 2017. She has been consecutively selected to the Michigan Super Lawyers list since 2014. She was also named to the 2019 class of Women in the Law by Michigan Lawyers Weekly and was selected by DBusiness as a Top Lawyer in 2019.

In addition to her bar activities, Sarah is active in her community. Sarah currently teaches Litigation for Oakland University's paralegal program. Sarah serves as a volunteer for Sanctum House and The Joseph Project. Sarah volunteered for the Women's Survival Center for several years, receiving a volunteer award from that organization in 2004. She also served several years on the Board of Directors of Homes for Autism and has served as a volunteer for the Girl Scouts of Southeastern Michigan. Sarah is a member of Michigan Association for Justice.