

Jennifer J. Henderson

Jennifer J. Henderson is the General Counsel of the Road Commission for Oakland County (RCOC). Prior to joining RCOC, Jennifer was General Counsel of Guardian Alarm and Guardian Medical Monitoring in Southfield.

Jennifer has been an active member of the Oakland County Bar Association since leaving academia in 2014, and presently serves as vice chair of the Municipal Law Committee. She has previously held the co-chair and vice-chair positions on the Business Court and Counsel Committee.

Jennifer is involved in other bar and legal activities, including the Government Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan, Women Lawyers Association of Michigan, and the Women's Bar Association of Oakland County. Jennifer was previously a member on the Criminal Law Committee of the OCBA.

In addition to bar activities, Jennifer is active in her community, mostly recently serving as a volunteer scoring judge in the Oakland regional of the Michigan High School Mock Trial competition. Jennifer has also volunteered as a judge in various law school mock trial competitions. She is active at her kids' schools, volunteering through the PTO and other school-related organizations.

Since moving back to Michigan from Washington DC in 2003, Jennifer has lived in Oakland County. Jennifer is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law. She lives in Troy with her husband, two children and dog Benji.