

Victoria B. King

Victoria B. King is the Judicial Staff Attorney for the Honorable Leo Bowman at Oakland County Circuit Court.

Vicki immediately joined OCBA after her admission to the State Bar of Michigan in 2010 and she has been a sustaining member since 2012. Vicki is more than an active member as shown by her leadership roles on many committees; her participation on several ad hoc committees; and her appearance as a speaker or panelist at several OCBA and law school events. Vicki currently serves as the Chair of the LACHES Editorial Board and she was instrumental in introducing many of its recent layout and content changes. Vicki authored almost twenty-one LACHES articles and co-authored an ABA Young Lawyers article. Vicki received the OCBA Distinguished Service Award in 2015.

Vicki is currently a Director on the OCBA Board. After being elected in May 2017, Vicki served on the Executive Director Search Committee, the Policy and Bylaws Committee, and the Legislative Task Force. Vicki is the board liaison for the New Lawyers, the Criminal Law Committee, and the Membership committees and previously served as a board liaison for the Business Court and Counsel / Forum for In-House Counsel committee. Vicki has served or continues to serve on the Circuit Court Case Evaluation, Criminal Law, Diversity, Membership, and New Lawyer committees.

Vicki also serves as a Trustee on the Oakland County Bar Foundation. Vicki is currently the Co-Chair of the Project Committee and a member of the Fellows Committee and the OCBA/OCBF Joint Committee. Vicki is currently a Life Fellow and has committed to transition to a Patron Fellow.

Vicki is a representative for the Sixth Circuit on the State Bar of Michigan's Representative Assembly and a member of the Drafting Committee. Vicki recently accepted an appointment to serve on the Character and Fitness Standing Committee as an advisory member.

Vicki is married and the proud mother of three active boys. Vicki enjoys watching them run cross country and track as well as play water polo, soccer, basketball, and baseball. In her spare time, Vicki is involved with the Troy School District where she served on a Facility Study Team – Attendance Area Review Committee and is the Treasurer for the Smith Middle School Parent Teacher Organization.
