

Emily E. Long

Emily E. Long is the managing member at Long Law PLLC where she focuses her practice on criminal and family law litigation. A former assistant prosecutor, she served as past chair of the OCBA's Criminal Law Committee, currently serves as an OCBA representative to the Oakland County Criminal Assignment Committee and is passionate about transparency in the criminal justice system.

She earned her B.A from Kenyon College, her J.D. from Michigan State University - Detroit College of Law and graduated from Cranbrook Kingswood.

When not working, Ms. Long enjoys ferrying her twins between swimming, soccer and golf.