

Elizabeth L. Luckenbach

Elizabeth L. Luckenbach is a partner in the Troy office of Dickinson Wright, PLLC. She is a member of the firm's Trusts and Estates groups, concentrating her practice in probate litigation, special needs planning and elder law. Liz was named a Michigan Super Lawyer in the area of estate planning in 2010 and 2011, and in trust and estate litigation every year since 2012. In 2013 she was featured as one of Michigan Lawyers Weekly's "Women in the Law" and in 2014 was awarded the Distinguished Service Award from the Oakland County Bar Association.

Liz has been a member of the OCBA since her return to her home state of Michigan in 2000 and has been an active member since that time. She was elected to the OCBA board of directors in 2013. She currently serves on the OCBA's Membership Committee and has participated during the past nine years as a Barrister and Master in the OCBA Inns of Court program. In addition to committee and program service, Liz is a mentor in the OCBA's Mentor Program and has recently participated as a presenter in the OCBA's "Litigation in Probate Court: Practice Tips for the Unwary."

Liz serves as a Trustee on the Board of Trustees of the Oakland County Bar Foundation, and in 2013 served as its President. Liz is and has been active in other bar activities, including serving for three terms on the State Bar of Michigan's Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee and currently serving on the Board and as a Past President of the Wayne County Probate Bar Association.

Liz is also active in the community. She has served on the board of directors of the Children's Center of Wayne County since 2005. She is also a frequent speaker on topics such as estate planning and probate to community organizations, and she previously served as an adjunct professor at the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law. She currently serves as the President of the Birmingham Athletic Club.

Liz earned her bachelor's degree from Michigan State University and is a 1997 graduate of DePaul University College of Law. She lives in Bloomfield Hills with her husband, Chris, and their five daughters.
