

Moheeb H. Murray

Moheeb H. Murray is a Partner at Bush Seyferth & Paige PLLC in Troy, where he focuses on commercial, insurance-coverage, and construction litigation. He represents clients ranging from leading national companies, medium and small businesses, and individuals in all stages of litigation, from case inception through final verdict and on appeal.

Moheeb has been an active member of the OCBA since starting his legal career in 2002. He began getting to know the excellent lawyers and judges in the OCBA by participating for many years as an associate, and later a barrister, in the OCBA's Inn of Court. Having earned the confidence of fellow OCBA members and OCBA leadership, he has been honored to serve as a Co-chair of OCBA's Business Court and Counsel Committee for the last two years. Moheeb has also served as a member of the OCBA's Membership Committee and Circuit Court Committees for several years, and he volunteered as a mentor in the OCBA's Mentor-Match Program. He is also an Oakland County Bar Foundation Fellow.

Moheeb is humbled to have received peer recognition for his legal work, such as inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America in Insurance Law (2018), being named a Michigan Super Lawyer in Business Litigation (2018) and a Rising Star before that (2011-2015), being selected as a Leading Lawyer (2018-19), and a Leader in the Law by Michigan Lawyers Weekly (2014). He was also honored to receive the OCBA's 2017 Distinguished Service Award.

In addition to his professional endeavors, Moheeb is also active in the community. He serves on the Board of Directors for the Institute for Social Policy and Understanding (a public policy think tank) and Zaman International, which provides food, clothing, services, and job-training for marginalized women and children in need in Southeastern Michigan and internationally. He is also a volunteer pro-bono attorney for International Refugee Assistance Project through the University of Michigan Law School.

Moheeb graduated from the University of Michigan Law School, cum laude, and from the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business with High Distinction. Before joining BSP, he was an associate for Clark Hill PLC. He is a lifelong resident of Oakland County and lives in Rochester Hills with his wife and two sons.
