

OCBA Speakers Bureau

FREE Program for Schools, Clubs and other Organizations

Spark the conversation. Let the OCBA's talented speakers bring big ideas and meaningful conversation to your classroom or event! The OCBA provides a great community service by maintaining a comprehensive roster of attorneys and other legal professionals who want to present to interested groups. All Speakers Bureau volunteers bring an exciting perspective and an extensive knowledge of legal issues to the table.

For more program information or to book a speaker, check the topics from the list below, complete the Speaker Request Form and return everything to the OCBA's Professional Development Director, Merri Lee Jones.
