

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

Includes all matters related to medical, dental and pharmaceutical malpractice.

EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS: As documented below, within the past five years, the applicant must have competently performed to completion substantially all legal work, including the preparation or supervising of the preparation of all legal documents, in not less than three filed medical malpractice matters through final resolution. At least one of these cases must have included a mediation.

In addition, either (1) at least one of the listed medical malpractice matters must have included a jury trial taken to verdict; or (2) the applicant has taken at least one matter to jury verdict in another area of practice; or (3) the applicant must provide evidence that, within the past five years, he or she has attended a formal legal education program, either as a student or a practicing attorney, that, in the discretion of the LRIS Committee, demonstrates a sufficient level of litigation training. Such programs generally must have included at least 30 hours of training in all areas of trial practice. Approved training programs include the San Diego Inn of Court, but another program may be accepted if the applicant provides evidence that it is of similar depth and scope. Such evidence should include, if available, a substantive description of the program published by the program provider.
