

The San Diego County Bar Association (SDCBA) is looking for a new Executive Director. The SDCBA is the region's oldest and largest law-related organization, with a $3.5 million budget, 21 staff members, and approaching 10,000 members.

The SDCBA's next Executive Director will:

- Partner with the Board and staff to implement the strategic vision of the organization;
- Develop, maintain, and strengthen relationships with related organizations, law schools, public and private entities, and the media;
- Manage multiple revenue streams that include membership, education, and sponsorship; and
- Manage real estate and investment assets.

This is an exciting time for the SDCBA and the successful candidate will have the ability to recruit top talent into the organization and grow its value for members.

The successful Executive Director should have a Bachelor's degree (Advanced Degree preferred), as well as senior level experience in a bar association or related legal association. This individual will possess strong interpersonal, consensus building, strategic planning, financial management, and technology skills.

The SDCBA has retained a national search firm, Vetted Solutions, to recruit its next Executive Director. Interested candidates should contact Vetted Solutions for a confidential discussion of their candidacy at SDCBA@vettedolutions.com. A search partner or search consultant from Vetted Solutions will follow-up to schedule a telephone conversation.
