

SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY

Includes all matters related to social security laws and procedures.

EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS: As documented below, within the past four years, the applicant must have competently performed to completion substantially all legal work, including the preparation or supervising of the preparation of all legal documents, in not less than five administrative proceedings before an Administrative Law Judge through final resolution and/or three Reconsideration proceedings, and one appeal before the Appeals Counsel subsequent to a hearing.

EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS: In addition to the requirements above, an applicant practicing law must complete 6 hours of State Bar approved MCLE credits in the subject area of the panel for each year of practice.

RECOMMENDATIONS: The applicant must provide two LRIS "Recommendation of Professional Qualification" forms from licensed lawyers who practice in the same area for which the applicant is applying, or from ALJ, state, or federal judges sitting in California, attesting to the applicant's qualifications in the area for which he or she is applying. (If the recommender is a practicing lawyer, he or she should be licensed in California unless the practice area involves federal law only.) These form letters must specifically reflect the authors' knowledge of the applicant's qualifications and include the authors' opportunity to observe the applicant's qualifications in the area for which he or she is applying. If these form letters are from lawyers, those lawyers may not be affiliated with the applicant's firm, and the applicant may not have any economic interest with them.

I hereby certify under penalty of perjury that I have met the above criteria and requirements, and that I am competent to handle referral matters in the panel subject area described above.
