Collaborative Divorce: Resolving Disputes Respectfully with a Commitment to Avoiding Courtrooms

Featuring:

Hildy L. Fentin, CFLS; Myra C. Fleischer, CFLS; Justin A. Reckers, CFP, CDFA; and Constance R. Ahrons, Ph.D.

The goal of Collaborative Divorce is to transform the resolution of family law issues through processes that protect the emotional and financial integrity and health of all the people involved without having to resort to court litigation.

You will learn about the Collaborative Divorce process, including the:

- Definition of a Collaborative case
• Core goals of the Collaborative model
• Make-Up of the Collaborative team

Common misunderstandings of the process and how to begin to practice Collaborative Divorce will also be addressed.

Core elements of contractual and personal commitments in Collaborative Divorce are:

- Negotiating a mutually acceptable settlement without having courts decide issues
• Maintaining open communication and information sharing
• Creating shared solutions acknowledging the highest priorities of all

This is a Brown Bag event. Registrations are due by noon on September 30, 2013 to avoid the late fee. Late registrants and walk-ins will incur a $5.00 late registration fee. Walk-ins will be accommodated as space allows.
