EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS: In addition to the requirements above, an applicant practicing law for less than three years must certify that he or she has completed no less than three hours of State Bar approved MCLE credits in a course focused on commercial landlord / tenant litigation laws and procedures, and, not less than three hours of State Bar approved MCLE credits in a course focused on rules of evidence at trial.

RECOMMENDATIONS: The applicant must provide two LRIS "Recommendation of Professional Qualification" forms from licensed lawyers who practice in the area of commercial landlord and tenant litigation law, or from state or federal judges sitting in California, attesting to the applicant's qualifications in the area of commercial landlord/tenant litigation. These recommendations must specifically reflect the authors' knowledge of the applicant's qualifications and include the authors' opportunity to observe the applicant's abilities in the area of commercial landlord / tenant litigation. If these form letters are from lawyers, those lawyers may not be affiliated with the applicant's firm, and the applicant may not have any economic interest with them.

I hereby certify under penalty of perjury that I have met the above criteria and requirements, and that I am competent to handle referral matters in the panel subject area described above.
