SPEAKERS

Mary Catherine Wiederhold (Chair) is a litigator specializing in tenant issues in San Francisco and the Bay Area. She has extensive experience in cases involving fire due to landlord negligence. Her other expertise includes wrongful eviction, housing code violations, and other forms of landlord negligence. A graduate of the University of San Francisco School of Law, she is on the Board of Directors of the San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association. An author of many articles about tenant issues, her speaking experience includes the San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association and the Bar Association of San Francisco.

Courtney Brown is a litigator at the Law offices of Mary Catherine Wiederhold in San Francisco. Courtney specializes in residential tenant cases. Her other expertise includes wrongful eviction, housing code violations, and other forms of real estate litigation. In Fall 2018, she was the co-author of Form Interrogatory Number 15.1: Utilize It Early and Pursue It Thoroughly for the SFTLA's The Trial Lawyer. Ms. Brown is a graduate of Golden Gate University School of Law where she was Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review.

John Feder is a partner of Rouda, Feder, Tietjen & McGuinn in San Francisco. He specializes in personal injury and wrongful death cases, including products liability, medical malpractice, elder abuse, public entity liability, trucking, and bicycle litigation. John successfully handled the Diane Whipple wrongful death case and many other serious injury cases involving dogs and other animals. John was also the 2007 President of the San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association and served as President for CAOC in 2014. John is a graduate of UC Hastings School of Law.

Scott Sumner is the principal at Sumner Law in Walnut Creek. He handles primarily catastrophic personal injury and wrongful death cases, with a significant focus/interest in bicycle cases, products liability, road design, and insurance disputes. A reluctant expert on medical liens and the collateral source rule, Scott helps draft and review related legislation for CAOC.
