State Of Oklahoma

Case No. AO- 20-2

STATE OF OKLAHOMA
DISTRICT COURT
2020 MAR 23 AM 9:37

To the extent that this order conflicts with AO-20-1, this order controls. In light of recent developments in the COVID-19 pandemic, the following measures are being implemented immediately. The goal is to continue a functioning court system in a safe environment for all persons.

All non-essential matters are hereby continued until further notice. The duration of this event is unknown. Attorneys shall confer with opposing counsel and obtain new settings that are coordinated with the Judge of record. Orders confirming the new date shall be filed of record. Non represented litigants shall confer with the Court Clerk regarding new settings.

Essential matters are those of an emergency nature and/or are urgent. Arraignments, Bond Hearings, TECO's, Emergency Guardianship proceedings, and Protective Orders will be heard as scheduled. Please contact the court for the procedure to be followed.

Email filings will be accepted by the Court Clerk. Telephone conferences are encouraged. A drop box for filings will be located at the front door.

Essential personnel are the only persons that should enter the Courthouse. Essential personnel are the employees that work for the District Attorney, Judges and staff, Court Clerk employees, Law enforcement, and Emergency management. Everybody, including the Judiciary will be screened at the security desk every time entrance is made to the building. No exceptions will be allowed.

Litigants and attorneys will be admitted only with permission from the Judiciary or Court Clerk.
