

Trace the dotted lines to draw the M'Clintock House.

The M'Clintock House is in Waterloo, New York, and is where many important events were planned and documents were written that led to the 19th Amendment.

Law Day is a public community service of the Oklahoma Bar Association. Visit www.okbar.org/lawday for more information.

Draw balloons so all the boys and girls have equal fun!

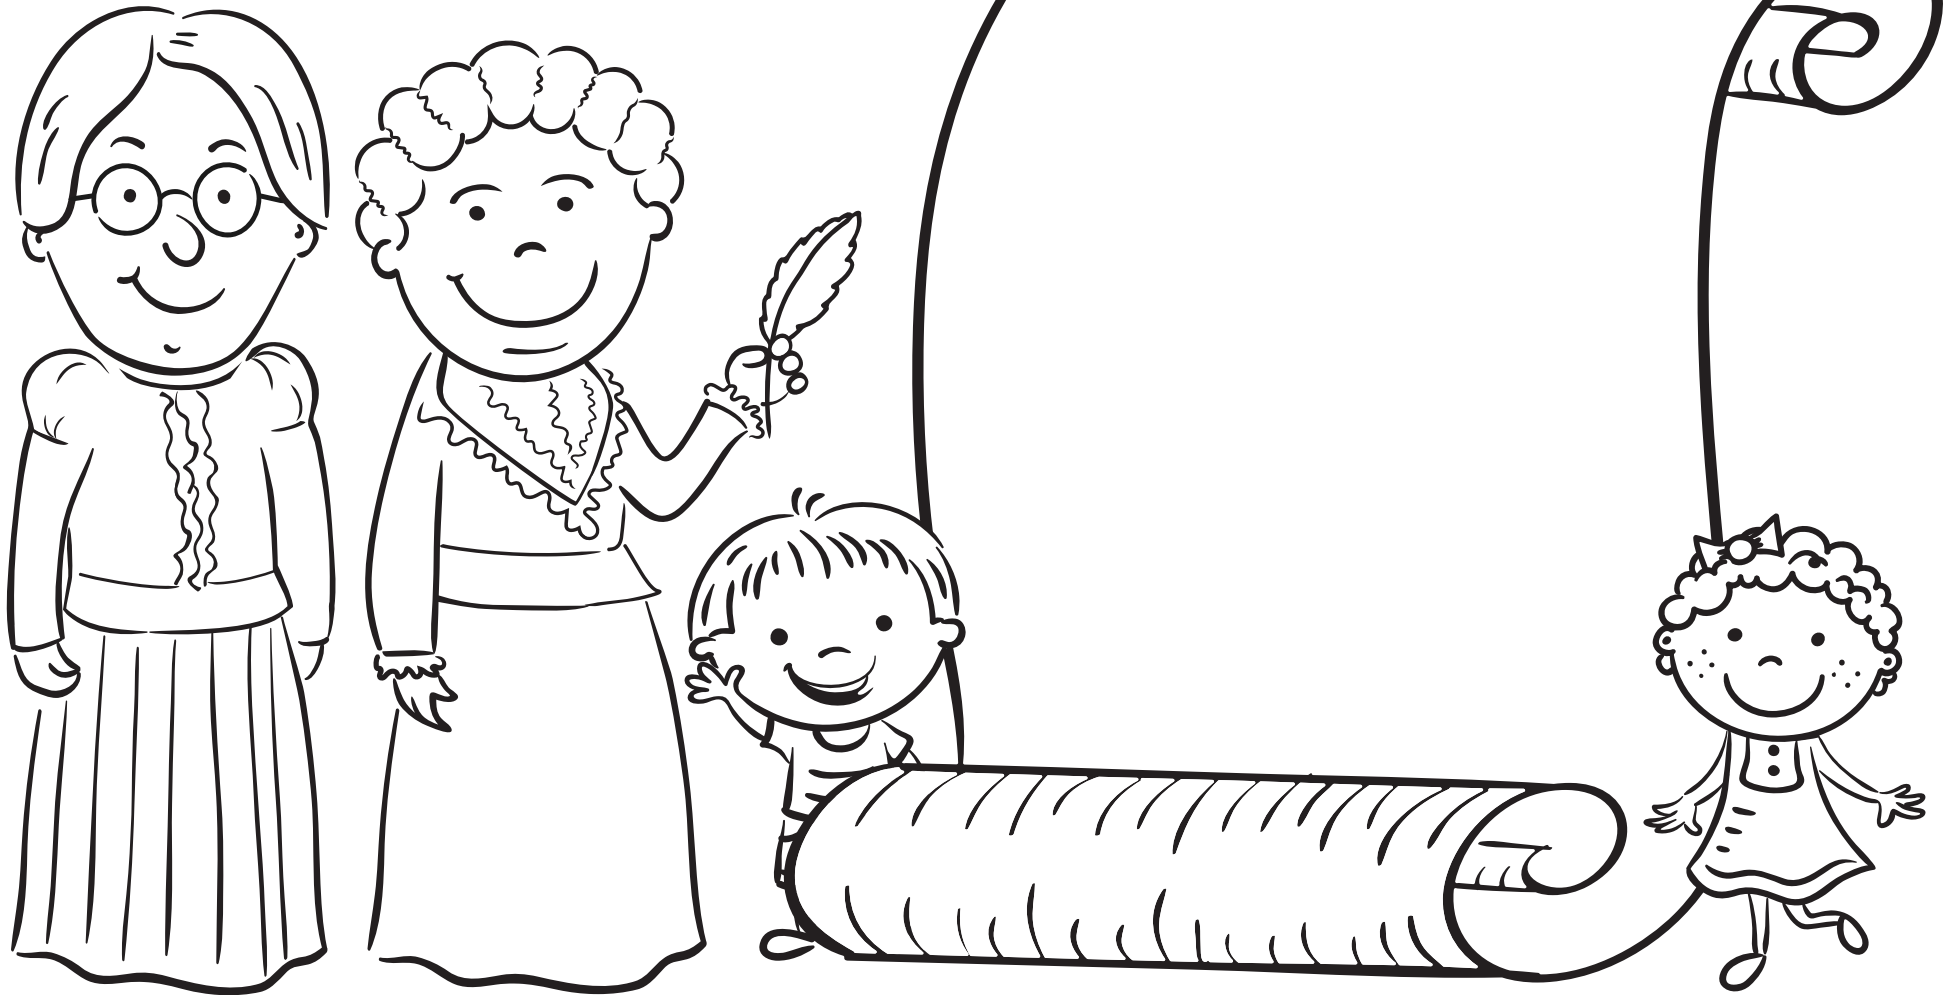

The 19th Amendment helps give boys and girls equal rights by letting everyone vote.

Law Day is a public community service of the Oklahoma Bar Association. Visit www.okbar.org/lawday for more information.

Write or draw what Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton are teaching the children.

Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton worked together to get people interested in the 19th Amendment, which gave women the right to vote.

Law Day is a public community service of the Oklahoma Bar Association. Visit www.okbar.org/lawday for more information.

