

TTLA Announces Trial Lawyer of the Year Award Recipient Attorney John Griffith Recognized

On June 14, 2018, at its Annual Convention, the Tennessee Trial Lawyers Association, named Franklin attorney John Griffith, the recipient of the TTLA Trial Lawyer of the Year Award. The award is for a trial lawyer who is an advocate of a noble cause, and who demonstrated superior skills and achieved an outstanding result for a client against great obstacles.

For the past 20 years, John has relied on his ability to form important relationships with clients, juries, peers, and the community to help him successfully represent personal injury victims across Middle Tennessee. He fights on behalf of deserving people who have been treated unfairly by insurance companies.

John is Vice President, Middle of TTLA and has served as the legislative chair for the past several years. He has been elected to serve on the TTLA Board or governors since 2008. John is also a member of the Tennessee Bar Association, the Nashville Bar Association, and the American Association for Justice. He has spoken at continuing legal education seminars in Tennessee, North Carolina, and Louisiana on topics including successful law firm management and trial presentation skills.
