Brandon is an accomplished attorney, with the Law Offices of John Day. He has received numerous distinctions for his work both in and out of the courtroom. In 2017, Brandon received the "Outstanding Trial Lawyer of the Year" Award from the Tennessee Trial Lawyers Association for "achieving outstanding results for clients against great obstacles." Brandon was also selected for the Nashville Business Journal's "40 Under 40" award for excellence in his field. Furthermore, Brandon has been named a Mid-South Super Lawyer since 2012; achieved an AV® Preeminent™ ranking from Martindale-Hubbell through its peer-review system since 2011; holds an Avvo 10 out of 10 rating; and has been chosen by Best Lawyers in America for his work as a Personal Injury Litigation Plaintiffs attorney. Brandon has authored a number of articles for the Tennessee Bar Journal and Trial Magazine, and served as the Associate Editor for Tennessee Tort Law Letter and Tennessee Trial Law Report. In addition, Brandon has delivered more than a hundred CLE speeches throughout the Southeastern United States.

Brandon lives in Brentwood, Tennessee with his wife Jessica. When he's not practicing law, you can find Brandon spending time with his wife and two children, Sophia and Graham, playing tennis, canoeing and cooking.
