

TENNESSEE TRIAL LAWYERS ASSOCIATION

Bruce Fox Named President of the Tennessee Trial Lawyers Association

New Board Members Selected from Across the State

Nashville – The Tennessee Trial Lawyers Association recently elected Bruce Fox as president for the 2017-18 term. Fox, a Clinton attorney, replaces Thomas Greer of Memphis who served as president from 2016-17. Greer now assumes the role of immediate past president and Rocky McElhaney of Nashville advances to president-elect.

Bruce attended college and law school at the University of Tennessee. Having practiced law for over forty years, he has tried over 125 state and federal jury trials to completion, as well as tried over 400 nonjury cases. His personal injury practice focuses on automobile accidents, workers' compensation, products liability, hospital and nursing home injuries, and trucking litigation. He is a partner and co-founder of Fox & Farley Attorneys at Law, with offices in Clinton & Knoxville, TN.

“Bruce Fox will be a true asset to the Association and the citizens of Tennessee,” stated TTLA immediate Past President Thomas Greer. “He has dedicated his life to helping others and will do a fantastic job leading the state’s top trial attorneys as president.”

Elections were held at the TTLA annual convention in Asheville, NC on Friday, June 16, 2017.
