

THE NACTT ACADEMY FOR CONSUMER BANKRUPTCY EDUCATION, INC.

“The Academy”

FALL 2014 LAW STUDENT WRITING CONTEST

The Academy is a not for profit organization with the sole mission of advancing consumer bankruptcy education. In this regard, the Academy has established a writing contest for currently enrolled law students.

Cash Prizes will be awarded to the first, second and third place authors based on content, extent of research, degree of difficulty of topic, and originality. Awards will be in the amounts of $750, $500 and $250 respectively. Prizes will be awarded by December 31, 2014. Winning submissions will also be published at ConsiderChapter13.org.

Submissions should be emailed to: MemberAccounts@ConsiderChapter13.org. Submissions should encompass any topic or issue concerning Chapter 13 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. Submissions should be in Word format and contain between 800 and 1,200 words. Work should be original, should not have been previously published, and should include endnotes to all references/cites.

Deadline for submission is October 31, 2014.

Eligibility is extended to any student currently enrolled at any law school.

Questions may be emailed to MemberAccounts@ConsiderChapter13.org.
