

SAVE THE DATE

December 4, 2012

To celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the dedication of the Supreme Court Building in Nashville with the opening of the Tennessee Judiciary Museum, the Tennessee Supreme Court Historical Society will host a cocktail reception.

Attendees of the event will be given an exclusive preview of the new Tennessee Judiciary Museum and will see the original 1796, 1835 and 1870 Constitutions of Tennessee which will be on display to the public for a very limited time. A presentation will take place at the Hermitage Hotel ballroom with doors opening at 5:45 p.m. The presentation will begin promptly at 6:00 p.m followed by the cocktail reception until 9:00 p.m. A continuous shuttle service to the museum will be provided throughout the evening so guests can tour the museum at their leisure.

Tickets are $100 per person and can be purchased by sending a check to:
Joy Day at Sutter, O'Connell
341 Cool Springs Blvd, Suite 430
Franklin, TN 37067.

For further information, contact
Joy Day at 615-771-5008 or jday@sutter-law.com

Reservations are limited to 250 people, so buy your ticket today.