

Fellowship Collaborative Highlight – Sarah M. Haberland

by Maggie M. Humphrey, Esq.

When the TBA Fellowship Collaborative launched in 2018, one of the first candidates we thought of was Sarah Haberland. At the time, Sarah was just starting her private practice, and was utilizing the TBA offices to meet with clients in the attorney workroom. We on staff enjoyed her upbeat and positive presence in the building, and thought she would be a wonderful candidate for the new fellowship program.

point where she was comfortable renting office space in downtown Toledo. Since leaving the fellowship, she has been an active advocate for the program, agreeing to mentor our new fellows, talk to law students, and really pitch in whenever we need her. We are so grateful for her support, and proud of the law practice she has developed.

Just last month, Haberland Law LLC purchased a building on Madison Avenue, where she “will be continuing to lay the foundation to help the people of Toledo and the outlying areas.” Even with all the uncertainty we are experiencing right now, Sarah was ready to move forward. “God leads my path,” says Haberland.

When we created the TBA fellowship, we hoped we would be helping new attorneys grow a successful law practice in Toledo. That is exactly what we have seen in many of our fellows, including Sarah. We wanted to take a moment to highlight this exciting time for her. Well done, Sarah!

Sarah applied, and was accepted into our first class. During her fellowship year, Sarah grew and developed her practice, to the
